

FARM FIELD CREW

$18.00 per hour commensurate with experience

Full & part-time positions available

Seasonal, March/April through October/November

Farm stand attendants are responsible for maintaining day-to-day operations. This includes providing an excellent customer service experience, setting up and maintaining product displays, and overseeing transaction completion. This position allows plenty of room for creativity to flourish, with staff having opportunities to collaborate on the design of new displays and signage. Staff will also have the opportunity to create farm-fresh bouquets for sale.

Candidates should be interested in farming, sustainability, and food justice. Varying experience levels are welcome – we encourage first-time field crew through seasoned farm staff to apply for the position. We are looking for hardworking, positive people that enjoy learning through direct experience. Other important qualities are solid time-management skills, the ability to work independently and within a team, and an interest in the mission-driven work of our organization.
