WHSP

New Hope Corporation Limited

Half year ended 31 January 2019

Controlled entity	50.0% held
Value of shareholding	$1.67b

Why we continue to own NHC

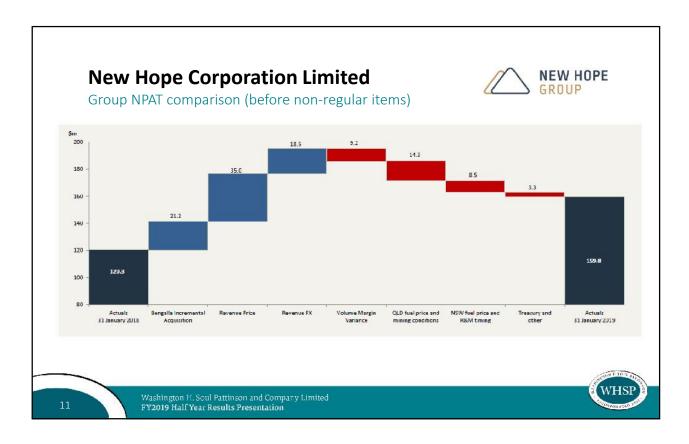

- Low cost producer
- Global coal supply constraints from limited new mines
- Exports ~96% of total saleable coal. Strong and growing demand of clean Australian coal from customers in the Asian region
- Generating strong cashflows
- Delivered outstanding dividends and capital growth through coal cycles; 23% TSR since IPO in 2003

Contribution to WHSP profit	$62.4m
Contribution to WHSP Regular profit	$82.1m

Results for the half

- Regular Profit $159.8m, up 33% (higher coal prices and larger contribution from Bengalla mine)
- Statutory profit after Tax $120.2m, up 4%
- Regular earnings per Share 19.2cps, up 32%
- Interim Dividend of 8cps fully franked, up 33%

WHSP

New Hope Corporation Limited

- Almost $2 billion in fully franked dividends paid to shareholders over the last 10 years
- 12 month TSR of 99% (to 31 January 2019)
- 23% per annum TSR since IPO in 2003
- $10k invested at the IPO now worth $277k

2018

- Wood Mackenzie expects longer term seaborne demand for thermal coal to remain static
- Demand in SE Asia and India compensates for reduction in demand in other countries
- No meaningful global supply response
- Increased regulatory hurdles, more difficult financing and longer lead times will impact new mine development
- Australian coal in demand to feed lower emission HELE plants under construction

- Asia continues to rely on new technology coal plants for competitively priced electricity
- New plants will generate demand for 600Mtpa of coal (130Mtpa of seaborne thermal coal)
- If Australia does not meet this demand, poorer quality coal from other countries will supply Asia's demand

TPG Telecom Limited

1H18 to 1H19 Underlying EBITDA bridge

- TELECON
- NBN headwinds (lower margin product) more than offset by growth in other earnings
- NBN customer migration impacts both broadband and voice customers
- The $39m of other growth over the 1H18 was driven by the Corporate Division (including an uplift from the provision of fibre to VHA) and continued operational efficiencies

Washington H. Soul Pattinson and Company Limited FY2019 Half Year Results Presentation

- Continuing to advance a number of projects around Australia with exposure to primarily copper, zinc and gold
- Nearing production on a number of assets
- Results impacted by significant expenses associated with :
 - start-up phase of the Barbara gold mine;
 - start-up phase of the Wallace gold mine;
 - progressing the development of the Mt Colin copper mine;
 - lower than expected ore production at Jaguar as focus shifted to opening up additional mining fronts for future development

Washington H. Soul Pattinson and Company Limited FY2019 Half Year Results Presentation

Outlook

- We remain cautious early warning signs of a slowing economy and asset prices remain high
- A number of key regulatory events to influence future performance:
 - Approval of TPG and VHA merger
 - Approval of New Acland Stage 3 mine extension for New Hope
- We will position ourselves for opportunities after the cycle turns. Shorter term opportunities include:
 - disruption caused by the findings of the Financial Services Royal Commission may create opportunities for independent operators
 - B2B credit opportunities
 - opportunities from a slowdown in the property market and tighter lending practices
- We are positive on the robust and defensive nature of WHSP's portfolio
