The Night Before

There's something truly magical about having the entire place to yourselves.

A special pre-wedding gathering

Catching up with your closest family, friends, and bridal party in the lead-up to your big day is something truly special, and these memories are ones to be cherished.

Spend quality time together the night before the wedding celebrations begins.

Whether you choose to get creative and cook in our lodge kitchen, indulge in our All-Inclusive catering option (or select individual dishes), or explore one of the many local restaurants and wineries nearby, we're here to ensure your time with those who matter most is truly unforgettable.

Wedding Partners

Our partners include a carefully selected group of experienced wedding and event planners, all of whom are familiar with Mount French Lodge and the Scenic Rim’s magical backdrops.

We highly recommend wedding couples engage a professional Wedding Planner for assistance with specific aspects of the event to ensure everything runs smoothly, however, we do offer couples the flexibility to manage their own wedding details.

Please note that Mount French Lodge does not provide wedding planning services directly.
