

Radio Radio House Rules

By entering the premises you agree to the following guidelines:

- No entry under the age of 18, identification can be asked.
- Directions from the Radio Radio staff need to be followed.
- By entering the premises you agree to a body search.
- Jackets and bags need to be put in the lockers. Radio Radio is not responsible for lost items, theft or damage.
- Guests that are visibly intoxicated can be refused entry.
- Guests that behave aggressively in any way can be refused entry.
- We expect all our guests to have a tolerant attitude towards the other guests. Radio Radio is a safe space, regardless of gender, race, culture or gender identity.
- Behaviour that is perceived by other guests as aggressive, intimidating or threatening can be followed by removal of the premises. Entry in the future will be refused.
- The staff is here to help you. If you or another guest don't feel well, please come to us.
- In case of an incident like aggressive behaviour or other problems we ask you to warn our staff.
- Radio Radio has the right to refuse groups.
- In case of a crime or misbehaviour the police will be contacted.
- The use or dealing in drugs will result in removal of the premises. In the case of possession of more than the legal amount the police will be contacted.
- Weapons of any kind are not allowed and when found will be confiscated. Entry into the premises will be refused.
- Radio Radio is not responsible for any kind of personal or material damage when on the premises. This also includes hearing damage. Earplugs can be purchased at the bar.
- Your stay at Radio Radio is entirely at your own risk.
- Guests who behave loudly, destructively, leave trash or urinate in public will be removed from the premises and denied entry in the future.

If you're left with questions after reading our house rules we'd be happy to elaborate, feel free to reach out to a staff member or send an email to radio@radiatoradio.radio