About Radio Radio

Radio Radio grew to be an iconic nightclub in Amsterdam, Westerpark – despite its size.

At night, programming leading underground house artists together with the new generation of musical talents. While, by day, broadcasting weekly from the in-house online radio station (RRFM).

Community driven in its core.

The intimate dance floor, great sound system & light installation easily creates a warm atmosphere for all occasions. Highly customisable to your event's needs.
