LLM International Business and Commercial Law.

Our LLM International Business and Commercial Law programme is designed for those looking to work with international clients. You'll gain a comprehensive understanding and insights into legal issues businesses face when setting up and operating internationally.

LLM International Business and Commercial Law

Master's funding available?

Yes

Duration

12 months, full-time

18 months, full-time with Professional Development Planning

Location

London South (Waterloo)

Start dates

October, December, February, April, June and August

Delivery

Face-to-face
(with supporting online materials)

Qualification achieved

Master of Laws in International Business and Commercial Law (12-month programme)
(awarded by BPP University)

Master of Laws in International Business and Commercial Law with PDP (18-month programme)
(awarded by BPP University)

Entry requirements

- A 2:2 in a degree from a UK university or an internationally recognised university, in law or a related area of study, or a degree in which there is a substantial proportion of study devoted to law; or
- A 2:2 degree in a non-legal area of study, provided there is sufficient evidence of professional knowledge and experience
- For the avoidance of doubt, call to the Bar or admission as a solicitor in England and Wales or the equivalent in another jurisdiction may be considered equivalent

Full details on our entry requirements can be found on our website.

International students

For details of academic and English language requirements, please visit our website.

How is my programme structured?

This course covers the legal skills and knowledge in an international commercial setting, while exploring current topics in contemporary legal practice such as legal technology, innovation and sustainability.

Stage 1

Personal Effectiveness (15 credits)

International Business Law (30 credits)

International Intellectual Property Law (15 credits)

Stage 2

International Contracts and Trade Law (30 credits)

International Dispute Resolution and Arbitration (30 credits)

Stage 3

Professional Skills (15 credits)

Contemporary Legal Practice (15 credits)

Professional Research Project (30 credits)

Extended 18-month route

If you choose to study the 18-month programme, you will also complete the Professional Development Planning Programme (PDP). The PDP programme can contribute to your success at finding jobs and post-study work visa opportunities. It provides a structured approach to professional development, helping you gain the knowledge, skills and behaviours required to sustain a career in your chosen field.

How will I learn?

Our innovative approach ensures our teaching provides you with the latest skills you need to succeed in a modern legal environment, providing the most effective and dynamic learning experience, supported by our learning environment, The Hub, which provides 24/7 access to learning materials and resources.

- Prepare: pre-work undertaken before your seminars so you can familiarise yourself with key concepts and theories
- Apply: undertaking weekly tasks which will be shared on The Hub
- Collaborate: weekly sessions where your tutor will bring the topic to life with facilitated discussion and activities to extend and challenge your knowledge
- Consolidate: after your live sessions, you'll be guided to apply your knowledge in contexts via consolidation and extension exercises and reading

BPP UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

Why choose this programme?

- Discover the legal processes of international agreements, transactions and disputes when working with global clients
- Explore the key areas of law and regulation of international businesses, using practical case studies and real-world examples
- Our extensive links to employers and professional bodies ensures our course content is up to date and relatable to the key challenges facing international law firms and their global clients
- Access a six-month Professional Development Planning Programme to further enhance your employability and post-study work visa opportunities
- Boost your CV by volunteering on pro bono projects through our award-winning Social Impact team
- Aimed at students seeking a modern, practical LLM with a range of modules covering international aspects of corporate and commercial legal transactions

How can I fund my programme?

We offer a range of funding and payment options for you to pay for your course in a way that suits you.

- This course is eligible for master's funding
- £1.4m available in scholarships, exclusively for postgraduate law applicants
- Interest free payment plans, available to help spread the cost of your course through instalments

How do I apply?

For application instructions, visit bpp.com/courses/law/postgraduate/llm-international-business-commercial-law

For scholarships, visit bpp.com/study/funding/university/scholarships

For more information or to apply

03300 603 100

bpp.com/courses/law

BPP UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL

Disclaimer: This information is accurate as at the date of publication, September 2024.
It is subject to change. This document is for guidance only and does not form part of any contract.
For more information, visit bpp.com. ©BPP University Limited 2024. 02043.

*Course structure differs for LLM Chinese Investment and Business Law and LLM Islamic Finance and Business Law. For full course structure, visit bpp.com. Based on The Graduate Outcomes survey of 2019/20 graduates 15 months after graduating for UK students. Highly Skilled Employment is defined by the Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) which is maintained by the Office for National Statistics.