

Bar Training Resit (BTR) Application Form

Summer 2025

Important information – please read before continuing:

Eligibility, Application and Enrolment

- This Bar Training Resit programme ("BTR") is a non-award programme. It allows successful BTR candidates to be eligible for Call to the Bar of England and Wales if they successfully complete all the elements of vocational Bar Training prescribed by the Bar Standards Board (BSB). In successfully completing all elements of the required vocational component of Bar Training, candidates will not receive any academic award (such as a Postgraduate Diploma or LLM) either from their original training provider or from BPP. The Inns of Court will determine Call eligibility upon receiving assessment results of completing candidates from BPP.
- BTR candidates must have exhausted any appeals and/or extenuating circumstances (or equivalent) process and must have received their final results from their original Bar Training provider before applying for the BTR. Whilst BPP will check a candidate's MyBar record and submitted transcripts/result documents, it remains the candidate's responsibility to confirm they are eligible for the BTR before applying.
- Candidates are not eligible for the BTR if any of the following events apply to them with their original Bar Training provider:
 - Any remaining Bar Training assessment attempts, or
 - Any pending or provisional results that have not been finalised, or
 - Any unresolved financial obligations, or
 - Commencing vocational Bar Training prior to September 2020.
- The BTR runs three times per year with the Spring, Summer and Winter sittings. This means there are three available assessment opportunities each year, in which candidates may sit their outstanding modules. Candidates who are eligible for the programme may choose how they spread their assessments across the sits, provided all BSB required modules are sat within five years of the date on which they commenced vocational Bar Training with their original provider. BPP strongly encourages candidates to attempt all outstanding assessments across a maximum of three sits, as this is likely to increase prospects of successful completion.
- When planning for assessments, please note that some assessments utilise the same set of papers. This means that if a candidate has multiple assessments to sit, it is sensible to sit some of those assessments together within one sit. The following assessments use the same set of case facts:
 - Conference Skills, Cross Examination and Examination in Chief
 - Opinion Writing and Legal Research
- Applicants are entirely responsible for ensuring that forms are completed in full and BPP takes no responsibility for any failure to do so.
- When an application is received and processed this will be considered pending. Applications will not be confirmed until payment has been made in full.
- The BTR team will send a confirmation of receipt upon receiving a candidate's application, which it will take 1-3 business days to process, depending on the volume of applications being received at that time.
- Making an application for the BTR does not guarantee that a candidate will be offered a place. In the event that a candidate is eligible for a place, but there are no places available on the sit applied for, the candidate will be placed on a waiting list for the next available sit. These candidates on the waiting list will then be given priority in respect of available places once the next sit opens for applications. The BTR team reserves the right to allocate available places on the programme at its complete discretion, having regard to how long an applicant has left to complete all outstanding modules.
- Once an application for the BTR has been received, processed, paid for, and confirmed, the candidate cannot return to their original Bar Training provider and will not be entitled to a refund of any part of the fees paid towards this programme. Refunds of fees will only be made in line with the BPP's policy on Cancellation and Postponement, as to which they should refer to the Terms and Conditions set out below.
- The training and assessments will be taught and examined in English. This will require a good level of both oral and written skills in English. The standard that candidates will need to meet is for their language to be readily comprehensible to native English speakers.
- In the Professional Statement for Barristers the Bar Standards Board states that the following level of competence in English language should be demonstrated by all candidates before enrolment:

“Barristers will exercise good English language skills. They will have an effective command of the language and be able to use it appropriately, accurately and fluently so as to handle complex and detailed argumentation. They will use correct English grammar, spelling and punctuation. Barristers should use correct and appropriate vocabulary, English grammar, spelling and punctuation in all communications. Barristers should speak fluent English.”

You must be able to demonstrate that your English language ability is at least equivalent to:

- a minimum score of 7.5 in each section of the IELTS academic test, or
- a minimum score of 73 in each part of the Pearson Test of English (academic).

Communications to and from BPP

- A BPP email address will be provided upon successful enrolment. Once a candidate has been issued with their individual BPP email address, the BTR team will use this for all email communications. BPP will not communicate with candidates via (or copy email correspondence to) any personal or business email addresses.
- It is the candidate's responsibility to check their BPP email account regularly for all communications from BPP and to ensure emails are sent from BPP email addresses. BPP takes no responsibility in the event that a candidate misses information as a result of a failure to check their BPP emails.
- Communication from tutors, the Exams team, the Overseas Exams team and the Learning Support team will all be sent to the candidate's BPP email address and will not be sent to personal or business email addresses.

The BPP Hub

- All candidates that are successfully enrolled will receive access to the pages of the BPP Hub which relate to the elements they have enrolled on (BTR Training, Assessments or both). BPP Hub is an online portal or 'learning platform'. If candidates have studied the Barrister Training Course or other courses/programmes at BPP, this is entirely separate to any Hub access they may have had previously.
- If candidates opt to take assessment only, the Hub page will be limited to providing assessment-related information. If candidates opt to take training, in addition to the training session, they will be granted access to an additional Hub space containing learning resources to aid revision.
- Access to the Hub pages will be granted after a full application has been made, accepted, processed and payment received. A candidate's Hub access will remain live for the elements of the course they are enrolled on, for the duration of the sit. Hub access will terminate at the end of each sit. Further Hub access will only be granted if a candidate is enrolled on a subsequent sit or pays for further training/Hub access. If candidates require ongoing access to any materials from the Hub (for example, in the event they are required to re-sit an assessment), they should ensure they have downloaded and saved what they need before their Hub access expires. It is candidates' responsibility to keep themselves updated with any changes to the law and/or procedure that may occur after materials have been downloaded from the Hub.
- It is the candidate's responsibility to engage with the Hub and to regularly check for any announcements or important programme related information that may be communicated via the Hub. If candidates are having difficulties accessing or navigating the Hub, they should email BTR@bpp.com for assistance. Information that is released via the Hub will not be sent to candidates via email, save in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the BTR team.

Training, Assessments and Materials

- Please consult the Programme Overview and Information for Candidates documents for full details of the training options that are available to help prepare for the assessments. Training sessions and workshops are optional, but are highly recommended.
- If a candidate has studied the BTC at BPP, some of the training exercises on the BTR may be the same as those studied previously. If there are any questions about this when deciding whether to opt for additional training, please contact the BTR team.
- In addition to the full training sessions and workshops, revision webinars are available. The webinars are not a substitute for attending the full training sessions.

- There are limited spaces available for some workshops. Places on these workshops will be allocated on a 'first come first served' basis.
- Materials for the Advocacy and Witness Handling Training will be released via the Hub approximately one month before the training weekend. Please note that candidates are expected to submit a skeleton argument in advance of the Submission Advocacy (Civil Applications) training. Further information on what is required in advance of the sessions is set out in the training materials.
- Candidates who are taking the centralised assessments in either Civil Litigation or Criminal Litigation will get access to BSB mock papers through the Hub. These are for revision purposes and are not marked by BPP. Answers and marking guides (written by the BSB) are supplied, so that candidates can self-assess their performance.
- In addition to undertaking any BPP training, candidates are advised to also self-study, utilising the Bar Standard Board's Handbook, Curriculum and Assessment Strategy, and syllabus to guide their revision. In relation to BPP assessments, candidates should also carefully study the assessment rubrics for each module. These are very important as they set out what is expected and are used by assessors to mark the assessments.
- Candidates will get access to the BPP Online Library once enrolled. However, BPP does not supply hard copies of any materials or textbooks as part of the Bar Training Resit programme. Candidates are required to purchase any hard copy books that are on the list of permitted materials for assessments in the event they wish to take them into the exam.
- All training and assessments will be scheduled according to UK timings i.e., GMT or BST (GMT+1).
- 'In-person' assessments sat overseas may have different start times in local time. Any timing changes will be communicated by BPP or by the external venue provider to relevant candidates if applicable, which will be subject to approval by the Bar Standards Board (BSB) and the relevant venue provider.
- Candidates are responsible for ensuring training and assessments are attended on time. Late attendance may result in candidates not being able to complete assessments and it may be necessary to apply to re-sit the assessment at the next opportunity. If a candidate is unable to attend their assessment, they should email BTR@bpp.com in advance of their scheduled assessment time for guidance on the options that are available to them.
- The following assessments will be timed, invigilated and 'in-person' assessments, which candidates will sit at an approved BPP assessment venue:
 - Criminal Litigation
 - Civil Litigation Papers 1 & 2
 - Professional Ethics
 - Drafting.
- The following assessments will take place online:
 - Conference Skills
 - Submission Advocacy (Civil Applications)
 - Advocacy Cross Examination
 - Advocacy Examination in Chief.
- Opinion Writing and Legal Research are assessed via coursework (online), the papers for which will be released seven calendar days before the submission date.
- Candidates will be required to travel to a BPP-specified venue in the UK or overseas to take the Drafting, Criminal Litigation, Civil Litigation Papers 1 & 2 and Professional Ethics assessments. The current list of locations can be found in the relevant section within this form.
- If a candidate has chosen to take an 'in-person' assessment for this sit, they MUST indicate their preferred location in the relevant section on this application form.
- For candidates who choose to sit their 'in-person' assessments overseas, they are responsible to pay the venue fees charged by the external venue directly. These venue fees are not charged by BPP and each venue has its own charging structure to cover the cost of administration, invigilation, room hire and postage of materials per exam.

- The provision of overseas venues is not guaranteed for each sit. After the application window to the current sit has closed, the BPP Overseas Exams team will liaise with the overseas venues if they approve to host the 'in-person' assessments on the scheduled dates and then communicate to candidates' BPP email addresses for registration and payment to the relevant overseas venues.
- For candidates who choose to sit their 'in-person' assessments in the UK, the BPP Assessments team will communicate venue and exam information approximately one to two weeks before the relevant assessment dates to candidates' BPP email addresses.
- Please note that candidates are not able to apply for a location change for their 'in-person' assessments once a Booking Confirmation has been received.

Travel and Visas

- If a candidate is entering the UK to attend assessments and requires a visa, a Standard Visitor Visa letter can be provided upon request. Due to the nature of this programme, a Short-term Study Visa letter or a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) will not be issued.
- If a candidate is entering the UK to attend assessments and does not require a visa, passport holders of certain nationalities may still need to apply for an Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) to enter the UK. Applying for an ETA does not require travel details or supporting letters. For further information on this, please refer to the UKVI webpage at www.gov.uk/guidance/apply-for-an-electronic-travel-authorisation-eta
- Standard Visitor Visa letters are only provided if requested by a candidate by emailing BTT@bpp.com at the time of application and indicating on the application form that they require one. Standard Visitor Visa letters are only supplied once a full application along with supporting documents has been received, accepted by BPP, payment has been received in full and a Booking Confirmation has been issued.
- It is the candidate's responsibility to apply for their own visa or ETA (where applicable) and to apply for this in time to enable them to enter the desired country to sit their assessments and before the closing date below. Due to the nature of this programme, BPP is not able to assist with visa applications.
- Visa/ETA refusals and/or a failure to obtain a visa/ETA by the required time will not be accepted as a valid reason for cancellation or postponement requests being made after the specified cancellation/postponement deadline.

International students who are residing in the UK

- If a candidate is an 'International Student', meaning a non-UK or non-Irish National who has limited leave to remain in the United Kingdom, and who is residing in the UK at the time of application, when providing a coloured copy of their non-UK or non-Irish passport, they must also supply evidence of their UK visa validity such as their UKVI Share Code together with their application.
- UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) is replacing physical documents (i.e. biometric residence permits/cards and visa vignettes in passports) with an online record of immigration status, known as an 'eVisa'. For further information on this, please refer to the UKVI webpage at www.gov.uk/evisa.

Learning Support and Academic Adjustments

- Candidates with a medical condition, learning difference, neurodiversity, disability, or any physical or mental health difficulties, and feel they may require screening or adjustments for their studies can request for learning support through the BPP Learning Support team. Requests for Learning Support and/or Reasonable Adjustments must be emailed to LearningSupport@bpp.com.
- Learning Support Agreements must be completed and in place at least ONE month before your assessments take place. It is not possible for BPP to accommodate late requests.
- It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Learning Support Team as early as possible with sufficient notice and supply the relevant details and documentation when requested, so that any arrangements can be confirmed and implemented in time for assessments.
- Any previous Learning Support Arrangement(s) at BPP or another education provider prior to enrolment on the current BTT sitting will not automatically apply. You must contact the BPP Learning Support team directly to confirm new arrangements to be put in place for you on the current BTT sitting even if you have sat for similar assessments previously.
