Where legitimate interests are given as the legal grounds, we would, upon request, be delighted to provide you with more detailed information on the balancing of interest test.

Personal data may be provided voluntarily by users or collected automatically when this Website is used. Unless indicated otherwise, the provision of all data requested by this Website is obligatory.

Should the user refuse to provide required data, this may mean we are unable to provide the user with the Website's services. In cases where our Website expressly describes the provision of personal data as voluntary, the user is permitted to opt not to provide the data, without this having any impact on the availability or functionality of the service.

Users who are unclear as to which personal data is obligatory may consult the Service Provider.

1. RECIPIENTS; LEGAL GROUNDS AND PLACE OF DATA PROCESSING; STORAGE TERM

1.1. CATEGORIES OF RECIPIENTS

In addition to the Controller, other people may, where necessary, have access to the user's personal data. For example, we send your personal data to suppliers in order to be able to send you orders you have placed in our Webshop. We are also able to share your personal data with government authorities, courts, external consultants and similar third parties to the extent this is legally required or permitted.

Furthermore, processors used by us, such as our hosting provider, our customer services contractors, digital strategy specialists, marketing, payment and Webshop services providers or service providers for our SOMD Loyalty Program, Subscribe & Save Program, Live-Avatar and Skin Analyser, and third parties participating in one of the BBC trading schemes who introduce customers to BBC, such as Members of the Beyond Beauty Club program, are given access to the user's personal data.

The processors are contractually obliged to put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect and secure personal data and to process the personal data only within the scope of our instructions.

The user may at any time request an up-to-date list of those parties involved from the Services Provider.

More detailed information on the legal grounds relevant in each case is available under "Comprehensive information on the processing of personal data". In case of ambiguity,

Summary of Financial Incentive. SOMD sometimes offers incentives for participating in our various programs such as product samples, points, or other benefits or rewards to those who opt in to our loyalty program or a monetary incentive to those who opt in to our affiliate and referral program. You receive such benefits or rewards under the loyalty program because we hope that you will want to buy our products. Under the affiliate and referral program, you receive a monetary incentive tied to the purchase price of products purchased by those buying from SOMD through a referral link that you make available to them. The affiliate and referral program includes storing your personal information in a block chain, which is immutable by design.

Material terms of Loyalty Program. You provide us your email address and we provide you with product samples, points, or other benefits or rewards based on eligible purchases you make when signed into your account through our websites. Once you reach a certain loyalty tier and/or earn a certain number of points, you may be eligible for certain benefits and rewards applicable to that tier and/or number of points, which benefits may change from time to time and may be offered on a limited basis. Benefits, rewards, or points can only be redeemed through our websites. By enrolling in the loyalty program, you will be subscribed to receive SOMD marketing emails and program related emails. We value the opportunity to sell to you.
