Continued over...

STEP 1

Go to an authorised person

(e.g., a person at your local pharmacy, school, bank, police station or post office – see Additional Note 1)

Take with you the following photographic identification documents (ID):

- Either your CURRENT driver's licence or passport (see Additional Notes 2 and 3) AND
- Photocopies of your CURRENT driver's licence or passport.

Photographic identification documents must contain your photo and signature and must not be expired (except for Australian passports which may have expired within the last two years).

If you are using your driver's licence and you have moved address, you'll need to provide photocopies of BOTH sides.

If you've changed your name, you must also provide a certified copy of the relevant name change document, for example, a Marriage Certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages, in addition to the above identification (see Additional Note 2).

If your legal name or date of birth does not match our records (excluding name changes covered above), please contact us for further instructions.

You need to take both the original ID and the photocopies.

STEP 2

Ask them to certify your ID

To certify your ID, an authorised person (see Additional Note 1) needs to:

- Compare and check the photocopy to the ORIGINAL
- The certifier must include on EACH page:
  - Written or stamped 'certified true copy'
  - Their signature and printed full name
  - Their qualification (e.g., Pharmacist, Bank employee, Police officer, Australia Post employee, etc.)
  - Date (the date of certification must be within the last 12 months)

See below for an example of how this should appear.

STEP 3

Send the documents back to us

Send the signed and certified copies of your ID back to us, attached to your forms(s) (see Additional Note 4).

ADDITIONAL NOTES

1. See overleaf for information on who can certify your ID. There may be a charge for certifying documents, please check directly with the certifier.
2. There are other documents that can be used to prove your identity if you do not have, or do not wish to provide, either a current driver's licence or passport. Refer to 'Other documents that can be used to prove your identity' below.
3. If your identification or other document is not written in English, the document must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd (NAATI) at the level of Professional Translator or higher (or an equivalent accreditation), to translate from a language other than English into English.
4. If you are signing a form on behalf of another person, you will need to provide the following:
  - A certified copy of the Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney, and
  - A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity for the holder of the Guardianship or Power of Attorney, and
  - A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity for the applicant.

- A clear copy of the document that identifies you (i.e. your driver's licence (front & back) or passport)
- Write or stamp 'certified true copy' of the original documents
- The authorised person's signature
- Full name, qualification, and registration number (if applicable) of the authorised person
- Date of authorisation (within 12 months of receipt)

OTHER DOCUMENTS THAT CAN BE USED TO PROVE YOUR IDENTITY

Either one of the following (they must include your photo and signature):

- A CURRENT card issued under an Australian State or Territory for the purpose of providing your age
- A CURRENT national identity card issued by a foreign government for the purpose of identification (see Additional Note 3)
