1. About GuildSuper

GuildSuper's mission is to help you get the most from your super, keeping things simple and helping you achieve the best possible lifestyle once you retire. GuildSuper has a particular focus on the financial wellbeing of members and their families.

GuildSuper is part of the Guild Retirement Fund ('Fund'), from which the Trustee is authorised to offer a MySuper product. that can accept Superannuation Guarantee (SG) contributions from employers.

Importantly, GuildSuper can accept contributions on your behalf, regardless of who you work for, so you can stay with us for your working life and into retirement.

The investment options in the MySuper product are determined by a member's age. GuildSuper also offers the MyMix Solution, which is a choice of three investment options.

The latest MySuper Dashboard for the Fund's MySuper product and Target Market Determination (TMD) for the MyMix Solution are available at guildsuper.com.au. Other important information about the Fund and the Trustee, including Trustee and Executive Officer remuneration and other documents that must be disclosed by law, is accessible from eqt.com.au/superannuation/board-and-governance

2. How super works

Super is a long-term savings vehicle that is, in part, compulsory. It helps you save money while you are working, so you have enough to support your lifestyle when you retire. There are different types of contributions that can be made to your super so that it can be invested and then used to replace your salary in retirement.

This diagram summarises how a super account works:

Money in	+ Any positive investment earnings	- Deductions	= Your account balance
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Employer contributionsAdditional contributionsRollovers from other fundsGovernment payments	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Any positive net earnings from the investments in your super account (see section 5)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Fees and costs including insurance fees (see sections 6 and 8)Taxes (see section 7)Any negative net earnings

Employer contributions: These include SG contributions, which are compulsory under government legislation and classified as concessional contributions. Generally, if you are working your employer must contribute a percentage (11% for the 2023/24 financial year) of your ordinary time earnings into a super fund for you. You can usually choose the super fund where you would like SG contributions to be made.

Additional contributions:

- Subject to Government limitations, you can make extra voluntary or personal contributions into your super from your take-home pay. Voluntary or personal contributions you make, for which you do not claim a tax deduction, are classified as non-concessional contributions.

- If you make non-concessional contributions under the non-concessional contributions cap during a financial year, and earn less than a limit set by the Government, then you may be eligible for a bonus super contribution called the Super co-contribution for that year.
- You can also make voluntary contributions for which you can claim a tax deduction, which are classified as concessional contributions.

Information on how super is taxed is set out in Section 7 of this PDS.

You can also ask your employer to make extra contributions from your before-tax salary into your account. These employer contributions are called Salary Sacrifice contributions. Salary Sacrifice contributions are classified as concessional contributions.

Tax incentives: The Government wants Australians to help pay for their retirement, so they provide tax incentives to encourage you to save through super.

Rollovers from other funds: You can combine your super into one account by transferring your super in other Australian super funds (if you have another) into your GuildSuper account.

Investment earnings: Your super is invested and any net earnings (which may be positive or negative) are allocated to your account.

Accessing your super: There are rules that restrict when you can withdraw your super balance. Generally, you cannot access your super until you reach a minimum age (called your preservation age) and meet a condition of release.

i You should read the important information about 'Growing your account' and 'Accessing your super' in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au before making a decision. The material relating to 'Growing your account' and 'Accessing your super' in the How GuildSuper Works Guide may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

4. Risks of super

All investments carry risk and super is no different. How much risk depends on several factors, an important one being the types of assets you are invested in. Asset types include cash, fixed interest, shares and property. Each asset type (and consequently each investment strategy, depending on assets making up the strategy) has a different level of risk and potential of receiving a negative return. Those assets with the highest expected return over the long term (like shares) also have the greatest chance (risk) of producing a negative return in the short term.

The significant risks relevant to GuildSuper include investment risks such as market risk, inflation risk, liquidity risk, currency risk and interest rate risk.

When investing your super, it is important to understand that super is a long-term investment that may be invested for more than 30 years. Over this time:

- while super funds aim to achieve their investment objectives for each investment option, investment returns will vary and superannuation investors may lose some of their money. investment returns cannot be guaranteed.
- the value of investments will go up and down and over some periods your account balance may go down.
- past investment returns should not be used to predict future performance.

- you may not save enough through your super savings to pay for the retirement lifestyle you want, particularly if you rely solely on your employer's contributions, and
- laws affecting superannuation may change.

What's right for you (including your level of comfort with risk) will depend on your age, how long until you retire, how and where you hold other investments, and your risk tolerance including how comfortable you are with the possibility of your account balance going down in some years.

If you would like to discuss the risks of super, then contact GuildSuper on 1300 361 477 or at guildsuper.com.au.

i You should read the important information about risks in the Investment Guide at guildsuper.com.au before making a decision. The material about risks in the Investment Guide may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

5. How we invest your money

When you join GuildSuper, your super will be invested in the MySuper product, unless you make an investment choice. The MySuper product is made up of three life stage investment options – Building, Growing and Consolidating. Your super contributions will be invested in the life stage option aligned to your age. For this purpose, your age is determined at 1 July each year based on your age next birthday.

As you get older, your investments will automatically be adjusted to reduce the level of investment risk, making your investments more stable as you approach retirement.

If you are invested in the MySuper product, any changes to your life stage option based on your age are made on 1 July, not on your birthday.

i However, you must consider the likely investment return, risk, and your investment timeframe when choosing to remain in the MySuper product or choosing other investment options.

6. Fees and costs

CONSUMER ADVISORY WARNING

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.¹

To find out more: If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website (moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

6. Fees and costs continued

How fees and other costs are charged to you

Fees and other costs are either paid directly from your account or deducted from investment returns before or after the returns from investments have been determined.

Further information about fees and other costs

The Trustee may change the level of fees without your consent. We will notify you at least 30 days before any increase that is a material change to fees, where required by law. This doesn't include changes to fees and costs arising from increased costs, which may vary from year to year. These increases may be notified after they occur and may be published on the GuildSuper website.

The investment fees and costs and transaction costs for other available investment options are different to those shown in the adjacent table. Refer to the important information about fees and other costs in the Investment Guide and How GuildSuper Works Guide available on the GuildSuper website.

i You should read the important information about fees and other costs including definitions of fees, in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au before making a decision. The material about fees and other costs in the How GuildSuper Works Guide may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

² Investment fees and costs include an amount of up to 0.07% for performance fees, depending on the MySuper product life stage. The calculation basis for performance fees is set out under the 'Additional Explanation of Fees and Costs' in the How GuildSuper Super Works Guide available on the GuildSuper website.

³ Insurance fees may also apply. Refer to the 'Additional Explanation of Fees and Costs' in the How GuildSuper Works Guide available on the GuildSuper website.

Example of annual fees and costs for a superannuation product

This table gives an example of how the ongoing annual fees and other costs for Consolidating life stage in GuildSuper's MySuper product for the GuildSuper superannuation product can affect your superannuation investment over a one-year period. You should use this table when you want to compare this superannuation product with other superannuation products.

Example – GuildSuper MySuper product (Consolidating)	Balance of $50,000
Administration fees and costs	$88.40 p.a. ($1.70 per week) + 0.17% p.a. For every $50,000 you have in the superannuation product, you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $85 in administration fees and costs, plus $88.40 regardless of your balance.
PLUS Investment fees and costs	0.54% p.a. And , you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $270 in investment fees and costs.
PLUS Transaction Costs	0.05% p.a. And , you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $25 in transaction costs.
EQUALS Cost of product	If your balance was $50,000 at the beginning of the year, then for that year you would be charged fees and costs of $468.40* for the superannuation product.

Note: Additional fees may apply.

* Applicable to the Consolidating life stage of the MySuper product. Combined ongoing fees and costs for other life stages of the MySuper product are lower. The cost of product includes 0.02% p.a. ($10) in administration costs deducted from the Contingency Reserve, based on the year ending 30 June 2023. If an amount is deducted from the Contingency Reserve, your account balance is not affected.

7. How super is taxed

Super is taxed in a number of ways

Generally, we will deduct the tax relating to your superannuation contributions or benefits and pay it directly to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). In some cases you may be liable to pay tax in relation to superannuation contributions directly to the ATO.

Tax on contributions: For a typical member, the tax rates on money going into your account will be as follows:

- Concessional contributions, such as SG, salary sacrifice or tax deductible personal contributions are usually taxed at up to 15%. A higher rate of tax applies to high income earners.
- Non-concessional contributions, such as personal or spouse contributions that are not tax deductible, are usually not taxed.

There are limits to the concessional and non-concessional contributions that can be made to your superannuation each year.

i You should read the important information about taxes and TFNs in 'Growing your super', 'Accessing your super' and 'Other important information' in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au before making a decision. The material relating to taxes and TFNs may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

i If contributions exceed the applicable limits, then you may be taxed at a higher rate.

You can claim a tax deduction on any personal contributions you make into your super (subject to certain conditions). If you do then those contributions will be treated as concessional contributions, be subject to the concessional (before-tax) contributions cap and be taxed usually at up to 15%.

Tax on investment earnings: Investment earnings are generally subject to a tax rate of 15%, however offsets (tax credits and rebates) apply which may reduce the effective tax rate.

Tax on withdrawals: Withdrawals from your account may be taxed if you are under the age of 60. Once you turn 60, withdrawals are generally tax-free.

How your Tax File Number (TFN) is used:

i You should provide us with your TFN when you join GuildSuper.

If you or your employer do not supply us with your TFN, we are required under law to reject any member contributions for you (including contributions you make via SUPERSUPER™) and deduct additional tax from your concessional contributions.

Not providing your TFN may also make finding any lost superannuation you have more difficult.

This is a summary only of key taxation rules as at the date of preparation of this PDS. There is further information about taxes relating to contributions and benefits in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au. Taxation rules are complex and their impact depends on your personal circumstances. Tax rules are subject to frequent changes. You should refer to the ATO website (ato.gov.au) for up to date information or consult an appropriately qualified financial adviser.

8. Insurance in your super

GuildSuper offers three types of insurance cover to eligible members:

- Death – provides a lump sum payment in the event of your death or if you are diagnosed with a terminal illness and have less than 24 months to live.
- Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) – provides a lump-sum payment in the event you suffer a permanent disability.
- Income Protection (IP) – provides regular income payments if you are temporarily unable to work due to illness or injury.

Default cover: After you join GuildSuper and your account balance reaches $6,000, you may automatically receive default Death, TPD and IP cover if you are aged at least 25 and under the maximum insurable age, if eligible. If you meet the eligibility criteria then the cost of this cover will be deducted from your account unless you decide to cancel your cover. If you are under the age of 25 or your account balance is less than $6,000, you may still opt-in to have insurance cover upon joining GuildSuper. Conditions apply to Default cover, including its commencement.

There are situations where you are ineligible for Default cover including if:

- you have received a TPD or Terminal Illness benefit through a superannuation fund or insurance policy at any time previously
- you are currently claiming or are eligible to claim a TPD or Terminal Illness benefit
- you have previously been diagnosed with a Terminal Illness.

You should notify us if any of these situations apply to you. Refer to the table on the next page for the type and amount of Default cover applicable to each age. Default cover is not tailored to your individual circumstances and you should assess its suitability. Pre-existing illnesses or injuries are not covered in some situations.

Default cover ceases in certain circumstances and other conditions apply. You should read the Insurance Guide for further information as to the circumstances and conditions of when insurance cover may cease, or be limited. You can request to change your level of cover, or opt-out of Default cover by logging into your online account or by completing the relevant form, or by calling us.

Your occupation and insurance costs: There are costs (insurance fees) associated with Default insurance cover which you are responsible for paying by way of deductions from your GuildSuper account. The insurance fees include the costs incurred by the Trustee in relation to administration of the Default cover (see below). The cost of Default cover depends on your age and your Occupational Classification (Active, White Collar or Professional).

The cost of Default cover for the Active Occupational Classification is shown on the next page. If you or your employer do not provide us with details of your occupation, then you will be classified as Active and you may pay more than you need to for your insurance cover. You should notify us if you are not in the Active Occupational Classification. Information about the cost per unit for each type of Default cover is shown in the Insurance Guide.

If you apply for additional insurance cover, then the costs will be calculated in accordance with the insurance fee tables shown in the Insurance Guide.

Insurance Boost: Eligible members (who have not changed Default cover received automatically (ie without opting to receive it) can apply for additional Death, TPD and/or IP cover without having to provide full health information. The cost (insurance fees) will be adjusted for the higher levels of insurance cover. To apply, complete the Insurance Boost form available on the GuildSuper website, answer some limited health questions and return the form to GuildSuper within three months of your Default cover commencing. Please note some conditions apply.

Life Events Top-Up: Specific changes in your life allow you to request extra Death, TPD and/or IP cover (subject to eligibility criteria), in addition to any insurance cover you already have, without having to provide health information.

The cost (insurance fees) will be adjusted for the higher levels of cover. To apply, complete the Life Events Top-Up form available on the GuildSuper website. Please note some conditions apply.

Other insurance options: Eligible GuildSuper members can:

- Transfer insurance cover into GuildSuper from any other super fund or insurance provider (exclusions for certain types of insurance, maximum limits and other conditions apply). To apply, complete the Insurance Transfer form available on the GuildSuper website. The cost (insurance fees) will be adjusted for higher levels of cover.
- Convert your Default Death and TPD cover to fixed cover. With fixed cover, the level of insurance cover stays the same but the cost of cover increases as you get older. Insurance fee rates differ between fixed cover and Default cover (refer to the relevant Insurance fee tables in the Insurance Guide).

The total insurance fee you pay includes an insurance administration fee equal to 6% of the amount paid to the Insurer. This fee is paid to the Promoter to cover the costs of administration arrangements by the Promoter.

8. Insurance in your super continued

Want more cover?

If you have no cover or would like additional cover, you can apply at any time for Death, TPD and/or IP cover (subject to eligibility criteria and maximum benefit limits). You can also apply to reduce the IP cover waiting period to either 30 or 60 days or for an increase to the IP maximum Benefit Period to age 65.

You can apply by logging into your online account at guildsuper.com.au or by completing the Application for Insurance available on the GuildSuper website. You will have to provide health information with your application. Additional insurance costs will apply.

This table shows the default Death, TPD and IP cover amount and insurance fees for eligible members in the Active Occupational Classification. Refer to the Insurance Guide for information about the insurance fees applicable to eligible members in the White Collar or Professional Occupational Classification.

Opting out or reducing your cover

You can opt out or reduce your cover at any time by logging into your online account. Generally, any change to your cover will start from the date we receive your valid request. To opt-out of your Default cover without any insurance costs being incurred, you must notify us, within 60 days of your default insurance cover commencing.

i Unless you cancel or opt-out of any Default cover, or cease to be eligible to receive Default cover, the cost of the cover will be deducted from your account.

Paying insurance benefits: If you make an insurance claim, the Trustee and the Insurer will determine whether you are entitled to be paid based on the policy terms, the Fund's rules and the law.

i You should read the important information about insurance in the Insurance Guide, including eligibility criteria, commencement of cover, cancellation or cessation of cover, changing your cover, the level and type of optional cover available, the cost of cover depending on your circumstances, conditions, exclusions and other significant information relating to insurance before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate or whether to apply for insurance. Refer to the Insurance Guide for information on matters that may affect your entitlement to insurance cover or payment of an insured benefit.

Should your account become inactive (i.e. not receive any contributions or rollovers) for a continuous period of 16 months or more it is possible that your insurance benefits may be cancelled. Please refer to the Insurance Guide for full details.

i You should read the important information about insurance in the Insurance Guide at guildsuper.com.au before making a decision. The material relating to insurance may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.

9. How to open an account

There are two easy ways to open a GuildSuper account:

OPTION 1: When you choose to join

1. Read this PDS and the important information in the Guides referred to in this PDS.
2. Complete the online join form available on our website.

Once your membership account is established, you can then start to make contributions. You can also request that your employer contributes into your account by providing a completed Choice of Superannuation Fund form to your employer. Your account balance will be invested in the MySuper product and you may have default insurance cover, if employer contributions are made to your account within a specified timeframe and you are eligible. If you want to make an investment choice or change insurance cover, you can do so by logging into your account via GuildSuper online.

OPTION 2: When your employer has joined you

1. An account will be created for you if your employer is a participating GuildSuper employer and makes a super contribution for you. The contribution will be invested in the MySuper product and you will have Default cover, if eligible.
2. Read this PDS (and the important information in the Guides referred to in this PDS), and if you want to make an investment choice and/or change your insurance cover, you can do so by logging into your account via GuildSuper online.

If we are unable to open your account or increase your interest in the Fund for any reason, monies received for investment may be retained in a separate trust account in accordance with relevant law. Any interest on these monies is retained in the Fund's pool of assets and is not passed on to you.

Welcome to GuildSuper: Once your account is set up you will receive a Welcome communication with your membership details and information about SUPERSUPER™. The personal information (including account details), you or your employer provide in relation to your account, on or after you become a member, is protected. The Trustee's privacy policy can be found at eqt.com.au/global/privacystatement.

Cooling-off period: A cooling-off period only applies if you joined the Fund under Option 1. If you advise us in writing within 14 days from the date of the communication you receive confirming your membership that you do not wish to be part of GuildSuper, we will direct your money to an eligible fund (subject to Government preservation rules) and no fees will be deducted directly from your account. However, the amount returned may be adjusted for any tax payable or unit price movements. In some circumstances, (for example, if you have exercised a right or power in relation to this product) the cooling-off period will not apply.

i You should read the important information about privacy in 'Other important information' in the How GuildSuper Works Guide at guildsuper.com.au before making a decision. The material about privacy in the How GuildSuper Works Guide may change between the time you read this PDS and the day you acquire the product.
