What you need to do

Complete this form and return it to Child Care Super to make an application for early release of your superannuation benefits on grounds of financial hardship.

Use and disclosure of your personal information

We collect personal information about you in connection with your membership with Child Care Super. By providing your personal information, you agree to its use and disclosure in accordance with our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, you must not provide your personal information, and we may not be able to process your application. We may disclose your personal information to other parties, including our related companies, third parties who provide us services in connection with our business and regulatory or government authorities. We may use and disclose your personal information for direct marketing purposes, unless you opt out. Our Privacy Policy is available at childcaresuper.com.au. It contains information about how you may access and seek correction of your personal information, how you may complain about a breach of your privacy and how we will deal with that complaint.

I authorise:

- Child Care Super to use Centrelink Confirmation eServices to perform a Centrelink enquiry of my Customer details.
- the Australian Government Services Australia (the agency) to provide the results of that enquiry to Child Care Super.

I understand that:

- the agency will disclose information to Child Care Super based on whether I have been in receipt of a qualifying Centrelink payment for a specified period to confirm my eligibility for early release of superannuation on the grounds of financial hardship.
- the agency will disclose to Child Care Super my personal information including my name, date of birth and payment status.
- this consent, once signed, remains valid while I am a customer of Child Care Super unless I withdraw it by contacting Child Care Super or the agency.
- I can get proof of my circumstances/details from the agency and provide it to Child Care Super so that my eligibility for early release of superannuation on the grounds of financial hardship can be determined.
- if I withdraw my consent or do not alternatively provide proof of my circumstances/details, I may not be eligible for the service provided by Child Care Super.

13. Confirm residency / citizenship status

The ability to access your super on the grounds of severe financial hardship may depend upon your residency or citizenship status. Please indicate your current status by ticking the appropriate box below.

Are you an Australian or New Zealand citizen or an Australian Permanent Resident? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If your request is affected by your residency / citizenship status, you will be advised accordingly.

14. Sign the form

The following MUST accompany your application for it to be considered:

- Evidence of current monthly income and expenses. Documents should not be over one month old.
- Evidence of overdue bills, loans or credit card payments. Documents should not be over one month old.

The Trustee can only approve the release of ONE payment from your superannuation benefit in any 12 month period, up to the maximum gross amount of $10,000.

I understand that, should I have insurance cover, if my balance is reduced to zero, or if there is insufficient money in my account to pay the next insurance fee, my cover will be cancelled.

I understand that if my cover ceases because there is insufficient money in my Child Care Super account to pay the next insurance fee, cover can be reinstated within six months of the insurance cover lapsing provided all outstanding insurance fees are received within 6 months of cover ending.

Further, I understand that for any reinstated cover, I must be in Active Employment on the reinstatement date, otherwise New Events cover will apply until I return to active employment for 30 consecutive days or I successfully apply to our Insurer for Full Cover.

I understand that the information on this form will be handled by the Trustee to process my application for early release of part or all of my superannuation benefit within these limits on the grounds of severe financial hardship. It may be disclosed to the administrator or government agencies.

I consent to this handling of my personal information. If I do not give the information, the Trustee may not be able to pay part or all of my superannuation benefit on the grounds of severe financial hardship. I can access my personal information by contacting the Fund's Privacy Officer.

STEP 1

Go to an authorised person

(e.g., a person at your local pharmacy, school, bank, police station or post office – see Additional Note 1)

Take with you the following photographic identification documents (ID):

- Either your CURRENT driver's licence or passport (see Additional Notes 2 and 3) AND
- Photocopies of your CURRENT driver's licence or passport.

Photographic identification documents must contain your photo and signature and must not be expired (except for Australian passports which may have expired within the last two years).

If you are using your driver's licence and you have moved address, you'll need to provide photocopies of BOTH sides.

If you've changed your name, you must also provide a certified copy of the relevant name change document, for example, a Marriage Certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages, in addition to the above identification (see Additional Note 2).

If your legal name or date of birth does not match our records (excluding name changes covered above), please contact us for further instructions.

You need to take both the original ID and the photocopies.

STEP 2

Ask them to certify your ID

To certify your ID, an authorised person (see Additional Note 1) needs to:

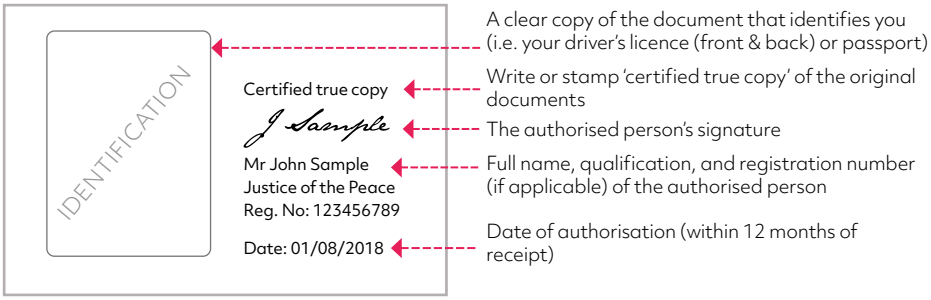
- Compare and check the photocopy to the ORIGINAL
- The certifier must include on EACH page:
  - Written or stamped 'certified true copy'
  - Their signature and printed full name
  - Their qualification (e.g., Pharmacist, Bank employee, Police officer, Australia Post employee, etc.)
  - Date (the date of certification must be within the last 12 months)

See below for an example of how this should appear.

STEP 3

Send the documents back to us

Send the signed and certified copies of your ID back to us, attached to your forms(s) (see Additional Note 4).



ADDITIONAL NOTES

1. See overleaf for information on who can certify your ID. There may be a charge for certifying documents, please check directly with the certifier.
2. There are other documents that can be used to prove your identity if you do not have, or do not wish to provide, either a current driver's licence or passport. Refer to 'Other documents that can be used to prove your identity' below.
3. If your identification or other document is not written in English, the document must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd (NAATI) at the level of Professional Translator or higher (or an equivalent accreditation), to translate from a language other than English into English.
4. If you are signing a form on behalf of another person, you will need to provide the following:
   - A certified copy of the Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney, and
   - A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity for the holder of the Guardianship or Power of Attorney, and
   - A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity for the applicant.

OTHER DOCUMENTS THAT CAN BE USED TO PROVE YOUR IDENTITY

Either one of the following (they must include your photo and signature):

- A CURRENT card issued under an Australian State or Territory for the purpose of providing your age
- A CURRENT national identity card issued by a foreign government for the purpose of identification (see Additional Note 3)

OR

If you can't provide any photographic identification, you can provide two alternative identification documents, one from each of the following lists:

- Birth certificate or birth extract
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth of Australia
- Pension card issued by the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) that entitles the person to financial benefits

AND

- Letter from the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) or other Government body in the last 12 months regarding a Government assistance payment
- Australian Tax Office Notice of Assessment issued in the last 12 months
- Rates notice from your local council issued in the last three months
- Electricity, gas or water bill issued in the last three months
- Landline phone bill issued in the last three months (mobile phone bills are not acceptable)

(The letter, notice or bill must show your name and current residential address)

Contact the Member Services Team if you are unable to provide any of the documents set out above.
