2. EMPLOYMENT OF RESEARCH PERSONNEL

- (a) the Research Personnel will be employed by the Host Organisation;
- (b) the Host Organisation is responsible for the Research Personnel as employees of the Host Organisation including the payment of salary and applicable leave entitlements;
- (c) Snow Medical is not responsible for any salary, employee on-costs or other entitlements (including, without limitation, annual leave, parental leave, carer's leave sick leave, long service leave, public holidays, redundancy payments, and superannuation), employment-related taxes or any other similar benefits and payments under any law, industrial instrument or conditions of service in relation to any Research Personnel, except as explicitly included as part of the relevant Approved Annual Budget; and
- (d) Snow Medical accepts no responsibility for any costs or claims for which the Host Organisation may be liable as an employer or otherwise including, without limitation, redundancy, compensation, dismissal or discrimination claims.

3. CONDUCT OF THE GRANT ACTIVITIES

3.1 Funding Award

Snow Medical awards the Funding to the Fellow and the Host Organisation on the terms set out in:

- (a) this agreement,
- (b) the Funding Rules;
- (c) the Fellowship Application; and
- (d) the Funding Policies and guidelines.

3.2 Grant Activities

The Host Organisation must conduct the Grant Activities and ensure the Research Personnel conduct the Grant Activities:

- (a) in a collaborative and professional manner;

- (b) in compliance with all reasonable directions provided to the Host Organisation by Snow Medical;
- (c) in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations; and
- (d) ethically and in accordance with the Code.

3.3 Contributions of the Host Organisation

The Host Organisation must provide all personnel, facilities, services and resources in accordance with the Fellowship Application, Approved Annual Budgets and any Extension.

3.4 Conduct of the Project

The Host Organisation must ensure:

- (a) the Fellow maintains reasonable, up to date and accurate records regarding the conduct and conclusions of the Project;
- (b) the Project is conducted in accordance with the Fellowship Application and any Extension; and
- (c) if the Project requires approval by the Host Organisation's ethics and/or biosafety committees (or equivalent), it provides evidence of the ethics and/or biosafety approval(s) to Snow Medical, and the Project does not commence until the required approvals are obtained.

3.5 Extension

At least one year before the Agreement End Date, Snow Medical will conduct a review of the conduct of the Grant Activities and may request the Fellow submits a further three year research plan and budget to commence on the Agreement End Date (the Extension).

3.6 Acceptance of the Extension

Snow Medical will determine in its absolute discretion whether to accept the Extension and extend the Term for an additional three year period. Should Snow Medical accept the Extension, the terms of this agreement will remain unamended and binding on the parties except to the extent that they are varied by the Extension.

4. Research Integrity, Bullying and Harassment

4.1 Formal Procedures

The Host Organisation must have clear, well publicised policies, processes, procedures and training in place to handle and manage allegations of a breach of the Code, Research Misconduct, Bullying and Harassment.

4.2 Research Integrity Allegations

The Host Organisation must immediately notify Snow Medical (in confidence):

- (a) of any allegation of a breach of the Code and Research Misconduct in respect of the Research Personnel; and
- (b) the nature of the breach of the Code and/or Research Misconduct, the name of the respondent and the investigation process.

4.3 Research Integrity Investigation

Where the alleged breach of the Code and/or Research Misconduct relates to the Grant Activities, the appointment of an external investigator to lead the investigation of the allegation of a breach of the Code and/or Research Misconduct is mandatory unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties. The Host Organisation must on a confidential basis:

- (a) promptly keep Snow Medical informed of the progress of any investigation into the alleged breach of the Code and/or Research Misconduct relating to the Grant Activities; and
- (b) provide Snow Medical with a copy of any progress or interim reports.

4.4 Outcome of Research Integrity Investigation

As soon as it is known, the Host Organisation must on a confidential basis inform Snow Medical of the outcome of the investigation into the alleged breach of the Code and/or Research Misconduct and provide Snow Medical with a copy of the investigative report, an analysis of the outcomes of the investigation, and a summary of any remedial action to be taken against the respondent.

4.5 Research Integrity Outcomes: Consequential Actions

If Snow Medical determines that the Host Organisation has failed to conduct a timely investigation into any alleged breach of the Code or Research Misconduct relating to the Grant Activities, or has failed to keep Snow Medical appropriately informed of such an investigation, or Snow Medical is not satisfied with the outcomes of any investigation of an alleged breach of the Code or Research Misconduct by Research Personnel, Snow Medical may choose to:

- (a) withhold or suspend payment of the Grant Activity Funds in whole or in part;
- (b) terminate this agreement; and
- (c) not accept new grant applications from the Host Organisation.

4.6 Outcome of Bullying and Harassment Allegations

The Host Organisation must inform Snow Medical of any upheld allegations of Bullying and Harassment against staff, students or associated personnel directly involved in the Grant Activities.

4.7 Bullying and Harassment Outcomes: Consequential Actions

If Snow Medical determines that the Host Organisation has failed to keep Snow Medical appropriately informed any such upheld allegations of Bullying and Harassment, or Snow Medical is not satisfied with the outcome of any upheld allegation, Snow Medical may choose to:

- (a) withhold or suspend payment of the Grant Activity Funds in whole or in part;
- (b) terminate this agreement; and
- (c) not accept new grant applications from the Host Organisation.

5. BUDGET

5.1 Approval of Annual Budgets

Subject to clause 5.2, the initial annual budget will be as detailed in the Fellowship Application. Thereafter, annually on the 28 February of each year, the Host Organisation shall submit to Snow Medical for its approval a proposed annual budget, specifying an estimate of the annual operating budget for the Grant Activities for the upcoming financial year. Snow Medical may approve, not approve or request amendments to the proposed annual budget in its absolute discretion.

5.2 Payments of Funds

Payment of Funds by Snow Medical to the Host Organisation is subject to an Approved Annual Budget for the relevant year.

5.3 Transfer between budget allocations

The Host Organisation may only transfer Funds between the allocations set out in the Approved Annual Budget with Snow Medical's prior written consent.

6. PAYMENT AND GST

6.1 The Funds

The Host Organisation will invoice Snow Medical for the Funds in accordance with the Payment Schedule. The invoice must be in the form of a tax invoice.

6.2 Use of Funds

The Funds must only be used and applied to the Grant Activities in accordance with the Approved Annual Budget.

6.3 Payment Terms

Subject to clauses 6.1 and 6.5 of this agreement, Snow Medical will pay the Host Organisation's tax invoice within 28 calendar days of the date on which Snow Medical receives the invoice.

6.4 GST wording

Words defined in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) have the same meaning in this clause 6.

6.5 Payment of GST

If any supply under this agreement is a taxable supply, the recipient of the supply must pay to the supplier an additional amount equal to the GST payable on the supply. Any amount of GST payable is payable at the same time as the payment for the supply to which it relates.

6.6 Interest-bearing account

The Host Organisation must hold the Funds as separately identifiable funds in an interest-bearing account and managed in a manner which applies interest earned on the Funds to the Grant Activities.

6.7 Financial management

The Host Organisation must ensure proper financial management of the Funds, including by obtaining and keeping invoices and maintaining proper books and detailed records of costs and expenses incurred in relation to the Grant Activities, and by applying its usual arrangements for monitoring and preventing fraud, bribery and any other corrupt practices.

6.8 Accounts and records keeping

The Host Organisation must keep financial accounts and records relating to the Funds and the Grant Activities to enable:

- (a) the preparation of Financial Reports in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards;
- (b) generation of an income and expenditure statements for each financial year of the Term, including:
 - i. a schedule of the Equipment acquired, sold, written-off or otherwise disposed of during each financial year;
 - ii. a comparison of the income and expenditure in each financial year against the Approved Annual Budget; and
 - iii. the audit of those records in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards.

7. WITHHOLDING, SUSPENSION AND REPAYMENT OF THE FUNDS

7.1 Withholding and Suspension of the Funds

If the Host Organisation or Fellow fails to comply with this agreement, Snow Medical may withhold or suspend payment of the Funds until Snow Medical is satisfied that the Host Organisation or Fellow (as applicable) has performed its obligations under this agreement. If Snow Medical withholds or suspends payment of the Funds, the Host Organisation and Fellow must continue to perform its obligations under this agreement in respect of the Grant Activities that are not affected by the suspension or withholding of the Funds.

7.2 Repayment of Funds

The Host Organisation must repay within 28 calendar days of a demand being sent:

- (a) any payment of the Funds spent in breach of this agreement;
- (b) all unspent Funds or Funds not legally committed for expenditure in accordance with the terms of this agreement if the Host Organisation is in breach of this agreement;
- (c) any overpayment; and
- (d) any interest earned on the Funds required to be repaid.

7.3 Calculation of the repayment

Where the Host Organisation has failed to comply with this agreement, Snow Medical will calculate the amount of repayment the Host Organisation must make with regard to the extent of the failure to complete the Grant Activities.

7.4 Set off

Snow Medical may set off the amount of any overpayment or claim for repayment against any future instalment of the Funds payable to the Host Organisation.

8. PUBLICATION, ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS AND OPEN ACCESS

8.1 Publication

The Host Organisation must ensure that the Fellow uses their best endeavours to disseminate, through publications and conference presentations, the Fellow's research findings arising out of the Grant Activities.

8.2 Delay of Publication

Publication or release of the Fellow's research findings arising out of the Grant Activities may be delayed for up to 90 calendar days to allow for protection and Commercialisation of Funded Intellectual Property.

8.3 Acknowledgements

Snow Medical's support must be acknowledged in any publications or presentations arising from the Grant Activities.

8.4 Open access

Any publication arising from the Grant Activities and its related data must be made openly accessible as soon as possible but, in any event, no later than six months from the publication date. Where this requirement cannot be met, reasons must be provided in the Annual Report. Metadata for all publications arising from the Grant Activities and its related data must be made available to the public in an institutional repository as soon as possible but no later than three months from the date of publication.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

9.1 Ownership and Licence

- (a) Nothing in this agreement affects the ownership of Background Intellectual Property.
- (b) Funded Intellectual Property vests in the Host Organisation upon its creation.
- (c) The Host Organisation grants Snow Medical a permanent, irrevocable, free, world-wide, non-exclusive licence (including a right of sub-licence) to use, reproduce, communicate, modify and adapt material in the Fellowship Application, Extension and the Reports for its purposes (excluding Commercialisation).
- (d) If the Fellowship Application, Extension or a Report contains material belonging to a third party, the Host Organisation must ensure that it has in place all necessary consents sufficient to allow Snow Medical to deal with the third party material in accordance with this agreement.

9.2 Copyright in Student Thesis

Despite anything to the contrary in this agreement, a Student retains copyright in their thesis.

10. COMMERCIALISATION

10.1 Notification of Funded Intellectual Property

If the Host Organisation believes any Funded Intellectual Property has commercial potential, it must promptly inform Snow Medical in writing.

10.2 Protection of Funded Intellectual Property

The Host Organisation will take the steps necessary to protect Funded Intellectual Property as is reasonable to do so with regard to commercial considerations. The Host Organisation will at all times promptly inform Snow Medical of significant measures considered and taken to protect, manage and Commercialise the Funded Intellectual Property.

10.3 Revenue sharing

Snow Medical (or its nominee) (the Co-Investment Entity) and the Host Organisation shall negotiate in good faith to agree the terms of a revenue share agreement in respect of net income received by the Host Organisation from the Commercialisation of Funded Intellectual Property. Net income received by the Host Organisation from the Commercialisation of Funded Intellectual Property shall be divided in the following proportions:

- (a) 75% to the Host Organisation; and
- (b) 25% to the Co-Investment Entity.

10.4 Co-Investment Rights

- (a) The Host Organisation may not enter into a Third Party Investment Arrangement without first notifying Snow Medical in writing of the Third Party Investment Arrangement (the Notice of Investment) and offering the Co-Investment Entity the opportunity to invest in the Funded Intellectual Property and its Commercialisation on Terms and Conditions equal to or more favourable than those agreed with the third party (the Co-Investment Rights). The Notice of Investment will include all information required by the Co-Investment Entity to consider the exercise of the Co-Investment Rights, and as a minimum all information provided by the Host Organisation to the third party in respect of the Third Party Investment Arrangement.
- (b) The Co-Investment Entity may exercise the Co-Investment Rights by giving notice in writing to the Host Organisation within 60 calendar days of receipt of the Notice of Investment, and the Host Organisation and the Co-Investment Entity shall forthwith execute an investment agreement between them on such Terms and Conditions (the Co-Investment Agreement). At the Co-Investment Entity's discretion execution of the Co-Investment Agreement may be made conditional upon execution of the Third Party Investment Arrangement by the Host Organisation and third party.

For the purposes of this sub-clause 10.4, “Terms and Conditions” means the terms and conditions agreed by the Host Organisation and a third party pursuant to a Third Party Investment Arrangement but excludes any intangible and non-financial benefits to be made available by a third party under the Third Party Investment Arrangement. Under a Co-Investment Agreement, the Co-Investment Entity has no obligation to provide any intangible and non-financial benefits agreed with a third party pursuant to a Third Party Investment Arrangement.

If a Third Party Investment Arrangement involves an issue of shares, the Host Organisation must offer the Co-Investment Entity shares in the same quantity and at the same price agreed between the Host Organisation and the third party, or third party syndicate, as the case may be, under the Third Party Investment Arrangement.

10.5 Rights to protect, manage and Commercialise the Funded Intellectual Property

If the Host Organisation does not protect manage or Commercialise any Funded Intellectual Property to Snow Medical’s reasonable satisfaction, then Snow Medical (or its nominee) will have the right by giving the Host Organisation six months’ written notice to protect, manage and commercialise the Funded Intellectual Property on the Host Organisation’s behalf. Snow Medical or its nominee, as the case may be, may exercise this right sooner where it reasonably believes the opportunity to protect, manage or commercialise the Funded Intellectual Property could be lost if more immediate action is not taken. The Host Organisation agrees to do, and will ensure that the Research Personnel do, all acts required to assist Snow Medical or its nominee in such protection, management and Commercialisation.

11. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

11.1 Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information

Each party must not during the Term or for five years after the end of the Term, disclose to any third party, or use for any purpose, any of the Confidential Information of the other party.

11.2 Obligations on a Receiving Party

The party receiving Confidential Information (Receiving Party) must:

- (a) take all reasonable steps, and do anything reasonably required by the party disclosing the Confidential Information (Disclosing Party), to keep the Confidential Information under the Receiving Party’s control;
- (b) immediately notify the Disclosing Party if the Receiving Party becomes aware of any unauthorised access to, or use or disclosure of, any Confidential Information;
- (c) not use, copy or reproduce, nor cause or allow any other person to use, copy or reproduce, any Confidential Information other than in accordance with this agreement;
- (d) immediately upon completion of the Project or termination of this agreement deliver to the Disclosing Party, or if directed by the Disclosing Party destroy, every copy of Confidential Information in the Receiving Party’s possession, except that:
 - (i) they may retain one copy of the Confidential Information to the extent required to comply with applicable law or regulation; and
 - (ii) they need not destroy copies of any computer records or files containing the Confidential Information which have been created as a result of automatic archiving or back-up procedures on secured central storage servers and which cannot reasonably be deleted; and
- (e) if any such Confidential Information is retained pursuant to sub-clause 11.2(d), the terms of this agreement remain in full force and effect with respect to such Confidential Information so retained for so long as such Confidential Information is retained.

11.3 Exceptions to Obligations

Neither party will be in breach of any obligation to keep any Confidential Information confidential to the extent that it:

- (a) is disclosed to the Receiving Party’s employees or agents as necessary for the performance of this agreement and such employees or agents are instructed as to the confidential nature of the information;

- (b) is required to be disclosed by law and the Receiving Party first informs the Disclosing Party of the intended disclosure and cooperates with the Disclosing Party to limit disclosure as reasonably requested;
- (c) is disclosed to the Receiving Party's solicitors, auditors, insurers or accountants; or
- (d) is approved for release in writing by an authorised representative of the Disclosing Party.

12. PRIVACY

12.1 Personal Information

Where a party has access to Personal Information in order to perform its obligations under this agreement, the party holding the Personal Information must comply with the requirements any privacy legislation applicable to the party, including if applicable, the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

13. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

13.1 Notification of Conflicts of Interest

If a Conflict of Interest arises during the Term in respect of the Host Organisation's or the Research Personnel's performance of this agreement, the Host Organisation must immediately notify Snow Medical in writing of the full details of the Conflict of Interest and the steps it proposes to resolve or otherwise deal with that Conflict of Interest.

13.2 Dealing with Conflicts of Interest

The Host Organisation must take such steps as Snow Medical may reasonably require to resolve or otherwise deal with that Conflict of Interest. If the Host Organisation fails to notify Snow Medical under clause 13.1, or is unable or unwilling to resolve or deal with the Conflict of Interest as required by Snow Medical in accordance with this clause 13.2, Snow Medical may suspend or terminate this agreement, withhold some or all of the Funds, require the Host Organisation to repay some or all of the Funds or reduce the scope of this agreement as it sees fit.

14. EQUIPMENT

14.1 Use of Equipment

Any item of Equipment:

- (a) must be used for the Grant Activities and the Fellow and the Research Personnel must be given priority access to the Equipment; and
- (b) must be maintained in good condition and safe working order by the Host Organisation.

14.2 Ownership of Equipment

Ownership of any Equipment will vest in the Host Organisation and listed in its assets register, except to the extent that upon termination of this agreement, the Equipment must be dealt with in accordance with the directions of Snow Medical in a timely manner.

15. TERMINATION

15.1 Termination for breach

A party may terminate this agreement in writing if the other party breaches a term of this agreement and fails to remedy the breach within 30 calendar days of receiving notice requiring it to do so.

15.2 Termination by Snow Medical

Snow Medical may terminate this agreement in writing if:

- (a) the Host Organisation has entered into any form of insolvency, liquidation or external administration, whether voluntary or involuntary, formal or otherwise;
- (b) the Host Organisation is charged with a breach of any law or is the subject of proceedings or investigations commenced or threatened by the Independent Commission Against Corruption, the NSW Police Force or a similar public body whether of a state, territory or the Commonwealth or in any other country;
- (c) the Host Organisation or Snow Medical determines that an allegation of a breach of the Code or Research Misconduct is substantiated against Research Personnel in accordance with clause 4 of this agreement; or

- (d) if the Host Organisation is in breach of any other agreement with Snow Medical.

15.3 Termination of Fellow

Should the Fellow:

- (a) resign or retire from employment at the Host Organisation;
- (b) become physically or mentally incapable of undertaking the Grant Activities for a period of longer than 90 calendar days; or
- (c) have his/her employment at the Host Organisation terminated, then this agreement and the Funding will terminate at the election of Snow Medical.

15.4 Consequences

If this agreement is terminated for any reason, then:

- (a) each party must return all property in their possession belonging to the other party, including Confidential Information and Intellectual Property; and
- (b) the Host Organisation must repay any amounts of the Funding already paid to the Host Organisation:
 - (i) which has not been expended in performance of the Project; or
 - (ii) not irrevocably committed for expenditure in performance of the Project in accordance with the terms of this agreement up to the termination date, provided such costs are supported by appropriate receipts and documentation.

15.5 No prejudice

Termination of this agreement is without prejudice to the rights of the terminating party to obtain damages for any breach of this agreement.

15.6 Survival

Clauses 4 (Research Integrity), 7.2 – 7.3 (Repayment of Funds), 8 (Publication), 9 (Intellectual Property), 10 (Commercialisation), 12 (Privacy), 14.2 (Ownership of Equipment), 15 (Termination), 16 (Transfers), 17 (Reports), 18 (Financial Reports and Recovery of Funds), 19 (Peer Review), 20.6 (Indemnity), 21 (Insurance), 22 (Logos and Publicity) and other clauses required to give those clauses effect survive the termination or expiration of this agreement.

16. TRANSFERS

16.1 Transfer request

If the Fellow resigns from employment at the Host Organisation, the Fellow may request that the conduct of the Grant Activities and the Funding are transferred to a new host organisation (the Transfer Request) and the provisions of this clause 16 shall apply. Snow Medical reserves the right, in its absolute discretion:

- (a) to terminate this agreement under clause 15.3;
- (b) to suspend or reduce payment of the Funds; and/or
- (c) to approve the Transfer Request and require the Host Organisation to respond positively and punctually to the Transfer Request, including without limitation, to transfer:
 - (i) any unexpended Funds to the new host organisation;
 - (ii) any Equipment to the new host organisation; and
 - (iii) the records and Research Materials to the new host organisation to enable the Project to be undertaken at the new host organisation in accordance with the requirements specified in the new host organisation's funding agreement with Snow Medical,
