

Mercury Electronic Communications Agreement

Last Modified: March 2025

Consent to Electronic Communications

This Electronic Communications Agreement is a legally binding agreement between Mercury Technologies, Inc. ("we," "us," "our," and "Mercury") and you, the individual or legal entity using the Mercury services ("you" and "your"). If you are opening or using a Mercury account on behalf of a business or other organization, you represent and warrant that you have the authority to bind that organization to this agreement. "Communications" means disclosures, notices, agreements, fee schedules, privacy policies, statements, records, documents, and other information we provide to you, or that you sign and submit or agree to at our request.

Mercury is dedicated to providing the best online banking experience possible, including providing information to you electronically. By accepting this agreement, you agree that you are willing and able to receive Communications in electronic form, and consent to receive Communications in electronic form. In addition, you agree to the use of electronic signatures with respect to your Mercury account. If you do not give your consent to receive Communications in electronic and not paper form, you may not open a Mercury account. If you withdraw your consent to electronic Communications at any point after providing consent hereunder, we reserve the right to terminate your Account.

Delivery Methods

We will deliver Communications to you electronically, either through the Mercury website www.mercury.com ("Website"); the Mercury mobile app ("App"); text or SMS messages ("Text Messages"); or through electronic mail ("E-mail"). If we do not deliver Communications to you through the above manners, we will tell you where you can go to receive such Communications.

We may be required by law to deliver certain Communications to you on paper even though you have consented to receive it electronically.

Hardware and Software Requirements

To receive and retain electronic Communications from Mercury, you will need the following:

- A computer or mobile device with an operating system that supports everything below;
- An internet connection;
- A current version of a web browser that we support, including: Edge version 42 or higher, Firefox version 62 or higher, Safari version 12 or higher, or Chrome version 69 or higher;
- A hard drive or other method of storing data;
- A valid, active email address; and
- A current version of a program that displays PDF files.

We may update these requirements periodically in order to maintain our ability to provide electronic Communications; if these requirements change in a substantial way, we will notify you of the changes.

Updating Contact Information

It is your responsibility to maintain accurate and current contact information so that we may send you electronic Communications. You can update your email address and other contact information by logging into your online account at www.mercury.com, in the "Settings" section, or by e-mailing us at help@mercury.com.

Requesting Paper Copies

We may choose to make paper copies of certain electronic Communications available upon request, but assume no obligation to do so. You may obtain a paper copy of an electronic Communication by printing it or by requesting we mail a paper copy. You may make requests for paper copies by e-mailing us at help@mercury.com.

Communications in Writing

We are required by law to give you certain information in writing. All Communications delivered to you in either electronic or paper format will be taken as information delivered "in writing."

Withdrawing Consent

You have the right to withdraw your consent to this agreement at any time. Withdrawing consent will terminate your Mercury account, including access to our Website and Mobile App. A balance refund check may be issued upon account termination in accordance with this Agreement. You may withdraw consent by e-mailing us at help@mercury.com.