

DUCK DOMINOES

Muscovy duck	Has white eye-rings	Has the lowest numbers of any New Zealand duck	Pāpango
Pāteke	Whio	Has several different names	Has a soft, rubbery bill
Is pictured on the $10 note	Is often mistaken for a mallard	Blue duck	Pārera
Grey duck	Is the ancestor of most domestic ducks	Interbreeds with mallards	Has naturalised from Australia
Mallard	Is the only true diving duck in New Zealand	Grey teal	Is an invasive pest
Scaup	Has bright crimson eyes	Is the most common duck in New Zealand	Has benefited from human impact
Tētē	Has a spoon-shaped bill	Is a prized game bird	Lives in fast-flowing, clean rivers and streams
New Zealand shoveler	Usually live in pairs	Eats invertebrates from the surfaces of rocks	Most were domestic ducks
Paradise shelduck	Is mostly white	Has a red-wattled face	Brown teal

