

Label the freshwater kōura

Use the labels to identify parts of the freshwater kōura. This is part of the activity Labelling the freshwater kōura.

Label	Description	Label	Description
abdomen	Lower part of the exoskeleton	chelipeds	First pair of legs and claws – used for protection and food gathering antennae	Sensory organs for orientation and co-ordination	head	The fore (top) section of the body antennule	Sensory organs for chemical information – food, gender	tail fan	Used for steering, stability and backwards propulsion thorax	The midsection – connects to walking legs	walking legs	Four pairs – used for movement

Labelling interactive: Label the freshwater kōura abdomen

antennae

antennule

chelipeds

head

tail fan

thorax

walking legs

