

The Washington State Fair is seeking individuals to work at the Fair Farm animal exhibit. Successful candidates will demonstrate skills in enhancing a child's experience in a unique, hands on experience with farm animals.

Job Title: Fair Farm Animal Attendant

Terms: Part-time/Seasonal (August 29 - September 21)

Hours per week: up to 40 hours

Wage: This is a seasonal, non-benefitted position with a wage range of $16.66 to $16.66/hr.

*Must be 18 years or older.

Job Description

The Fair Farm Animal Attendant will provide friendly customer service by greeting patrons, monitoring safety of guests and animals in petting area, answering questions, directing people to hand washing station, scooping animal waste, and monitoring entrances and exits.

Job Requirements:

- Display a sense of ease while speaking with the public one on one
- Work with adults and children of all ages, but primarily ages 3-9
- Candidates must be able to stand on feet for long periods of time while standing or walking through the exhibit
- Some light lifting up to 30 lbs. is required
- Be able to withstand wood chip dust in the petting area
- Be flexible to a fast-paced environment with high energy and moderate level of noise.
- Must submit to background check and be 18 years or older.

Apply today to by submitting a letter of interest or resume to
Jennifer Schelbert, Livestock and Competitions Coordinator at jennifers@thefair.com