Finding your new home starts with discovering the right on-campus location.

When you live on-campus you will join a community of over 200 residents and be provided with a home where you can embrace new opportunities and have the entire Deakin experience within your reach.

Start your day with a peaceful walk, a quick surf, or even casting a line in the pristine Hopkins River — it's all right on your doorstep when you live on-campus. From June to September, you might even spot whales along the coast, and a visit to the nearby Cudjee Wildlife Park offers an unforgettable encounter with native animals.

Located on the iconic Great Ocean Road, the Warrnambool campus is just a couple of hours from Geelong and the Grampians, and about three hours from Melbourne. With beautiful beaches, coastal towns, and national parks close by, weekend adventures are always within easy reach.

We place all first-year students in studios to help foster the vibrant, close-knit community we're known for. In your second year and beyond, you'll have the option to apply for one of our shared living spaces if you're keen to mix things up.

A great deal of space

A river on your doorstep, the ocean down the road. Living on-campus means you'll have lots of places to study, enjoy a break, or catch up with friends. Exclusive residential spaces include study rooms open all hours, large common rooms with fully equipped kitchens, pool tables and table tennis, movie room, outdoor BBQ areas and more.

“Being right by the ocean means there’s always something new to explore — from beach trips after class to hands-on fieldwork that actually makes the coursework exciting. The small, supportive campus community makes it easy to connect with like-minded students and lecturers, and the relaxed coastal vibe has made my university journey both inspiring and unforgettable.”
