RTH TRIO

ANNA ROMANOVSKÁ FLIEGEROVÁ violin, koto

PETR TICHÝ double bass

MICHAL HRUBÝ clarinets, saxophone and flute

The RTH Trio consists of Anna Romanovská Fliegerová on violin and koto Petr Tichý on double bass and Michal Hrubý on clarinets, saxophone and flute. The trio is mainly dedicated to free improvisation. The musicians themselves and the musical instruments the use for improvisation have very different musical backgrounds. Listeners can hear elements of contemporary classical music, folk music and freejazz. The Japanese thirteen-string zither called the koto, which Anna plays, brings an oriental touch to the overall sound. Michal Hrubý and his punk-folkloric musical foundation congenially complements the ensemble with the necessary element of the unexpected.
