

Spirits and SMOKEHOUSE FARE with a rhythm you can SETTLE into

A space where rituals take shape, where quiet moments before the ceremony carry as much weight as the ones that follow.

A considered inclusion for your wedding day.

Before the ceremony, before you step out and wait, this is time set aside for what matters.

You'll have private access to The Library, reserved exclusively for your final preparations, with our Spice Wood Tonic served on arrival and a house-smoked offering from the Gabbinbar kitchen, designed for six.
Chorizo and haloumi skewers, house-smoked brisket, paprika dusted fries and more.

Available from 1 pm, the space includes climate control, a fireplace, scented face towels, suit hooks, smokehouse tasting plates for six, and a round of Timeless Collection drinks, Gabbinbar cocktails or spirits. Built for the moments before — a grounded pause before you step into the next chapter.
