Dear Booksellers,

Nourish your mind, body and soul with these titles from Hardie Grant!

Cultivate a blossoming life with Doom and Bloom, from bestselling author and YouTube sensation Campbell Walker (aka Struthless). This self-help book blends modern research with ancient philosophy to distil actionable steps for personal growth. Campbell's signature humour and engaging illustrations will help you stave off the darkness, and achieve a blooming state of joy and creativity.

Kitchen Keepers is a celebration of all that is excellent, delicious and uncomplicated in home cooking. In this cookbook, kitchen maximalist Katrina Meynink offers dazzling meals fit for the realities of a busy life that are bursting with flavour. This is food you'll want to make again, and again, and again.

Next in the bestselling Ultimate series comes Ultimate Beaches: Australia, featuring 80 stunning beaches from across every state and territory. With a curation of big names and lesser-known spots and detailed information on what makes each beach special – whether you're after a swim, surf, beach walk or family day out – this guide has your next coastal adventure covered.

From Ultimo Press comes the next novel from Christine Keighery, We're Not Us Without You. High school friends Lani, Tim, Maya and Stig were inseparable until an unthinkable act shook the group. Now all are in their thirties and Stig has disappeared completely, which leads them to a spiritual retreat where Stig has been living off-the-grid. Is it too late to save Stig from himself? And will bringing him back into the fold threaten the silence that has been keeping them safe all these years?

And from HGCP comes Maxine Beneba Clarke's Stuff I'm (Not) Sorry For, a collection of 99 new poems for young people and the much-anticipated follow-up to the multi-award-winning It's the Sound of the Thing. This collection explores a variety of poetic forms and centres modern themes that make magic from the ordinary.

The Truck Cat

National Simultaneous Storytime 2025

Deborah Frenkel, Illustrated by Danny Snell

9781761215766 | Bright Light | 11 November 2024 | Hardcover | 244 x 244 | 32 Pages

The Truck Cat is a story about cats and humans, immigration and identity, and homes lost and found.

Some cats are house cats. Some are apartment cats. But Tinka is a truck cat. Tinka lives everywhere.

Along with his human, Yacoub, Tinka travels roads wide and narrow, near and distant. But no matter how much they travel, home feels very far away – for both of them.

Yacoub drives his truck to make a living, learning the landscape of a new country along the way, and longing for connection. When Tinka and Yacoub are unexpectedly separated, they are determined to find their way back to each other – and, in doing so, might find more than they expected ...

About National Simultaneous Storytime

National Simultaneous Storytime (NSS) is held annually by the Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA) with the aims of encouraging young children to read and enjoy books as well as teach them the value of literacy.

Every year a picture book, written and illustrated by an Australian author and illustrator, is read simultaneously in libraries, schools, pre-schools, childcare centres, family homes, bookshops and many other places around the country. ALIA and Hardie Grant Children's Publishing are thrilled to announce that The Truck Cat by Deborah Frenkel and Danny Snell is the NSS title for 2025.

Get ready to join in on the fun on Wednesday 21 May 2025. Head to www.alia.org.au/nss for more information.

Deborah Frenkel is a Melbourne-based writer of everything from books to billboards and even the words on the back of cereal boxes. Her writing for children includes picture books about nature, imagination, and different kinds of belonging.

As a child Danny Snell was a reluctant reader, so it was pictures rather than words that drew him to the wonder of books. Danny went on to study graphic design and illustration at the University of South Australia and he now works as a picture book illustrator and author. His books have won a number of awards including the CBCA Eve Pownall Award, the Environment Award for Children's Literature, and the Speech Pathology Australia Book of the Year Award. Danny lives in Adelaide with his partner, his two daughters and a sleepy old cat. And yes, he loves to read.
