Dear Booksellers,

Hone your appetite for adventure with these new titles from Hardie Grant!

Take your cakes, breads and pastries to the next level with Modern Australian Baking. Through more than 80 sweet and savoury recipes that will inspire beginner and more advanced bakers alike, chef Christopher Thé offers a masterclass in native Australian ingredients and how they can be used to create baked goods that are truly unique.

Explore beyond the beaten track with Ultimate Backroads & Detours Australia. This guidebook curates 35 of the best backroad trips from around the country, highlighting local wildlife, scrumptious eats, geographical wonders and small-town treasures to see along the way. The range of drive difficulty levels and mix of notable and lesser-known roads will inspire anyone looking to embark on an epic Australian road trip.

From award-winning author Katherine Brabon comes Cure, a stunning novel that follows a mother and daughter as they grapple with their own narratives about their bodies and their wellness, but all may not be as it seems. Perhaps a story does not necessarily need to be true for us to believe in it?

Adventures on the Dreaming Path is a gorgeous introduction to First Nations knowledge and younger reader's companion volume to Paul Callaghan's award-winning book The Dreaming Path. Join Emily, Jacob and Uncle Rolly as they explore Dreamtime stories and activities, and how Indigenous wisdom can shape how we think about ourselves and the world we live in.

And take a whimsical woodland journey with Into the Bewilderness, the long-awaited graphic novel debut from beloved author-illustrator Gus Gordon. Best friends Luis and Pablo spend their days wandering through nature, playing songs on the guitar, and eating pinecone porridge. But is there more to life than just the woods and the rivers and the sky? When the big city calls, will the friends find what they're looking for?
