01

Casa Vicens,
a UNESCO World
Heritage Site

This masterpiece was the first major commission received by Antoni Gaudí (1852–1926). Built between 1883 and 1885, it marks the beginning of his architectural career and is one of the earliest buildings to introduce Modernisme in Catalonia and across Europe.

We offer tailored group experiences in a unique setting in the heart of Gràcia, a neighbourhood with a strong local identity that makes visitors feel at home.

Holding an event at Casa Vicens means offering far more than an experience: it is about sharing a unique moment in a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where architecture, design and culture become part of the narrative of your brand or group.

Hire for private events

Casa Vicens is an ideal venue for holding small and medium-sized private events. It offers great versatility for hosting dinners, cocktail receptions, meetings and presentations.

The house is always hired in its entirety, preserving its original layout and visitor route: it is not divided into separate spaces. It spans four floors, each offering a distinct atmosphere to host your event.

Night-time rooms

Attic

The current garden restores the original spirit designed by Gaudí and the gardens of his time. In this early masterpiece, Mediterranean flora and fauna inspired both the decorative elements and interior details, forming an essential part of the Casa Vicens experience.

The garden is ideal for welcoming guests before a visit, hosting a welcome drink, a cocktail reception (for up to 120 guests) or a seated dinner with full service (up to 48 guests).

This floor houses the day-time rooms, the heart of Casa Vicens and the finest expression of Gaudí's early work. Through three interconnected spaces – the dining room, tribune and smoking room – an exuberant decorative setting unfolds, rich in colour, texture and detail.

It also features Francesc Torrecassana's collection of paintings, refined plaster and papier-mâché work, and the house's most iconic space: the smoking room, where a richly decorated ceiling evokes an exotic oriental atmosphere.

Night- time rooms

The night-time rooms on the first floor reveal the most intimate areas of the original family home: the bedrooms, the original bathroom and the sitting room. The visit highlights fine decorative finishes, materials and ceramic ceilings.

This floor consists of three open-plan spaces that can function independently or be interconnected.

It is particularly well suited to cocktail events for up to 100 guests, allowing free movement between rooms. It can also host seated dinners for up to 48 guests, arranged across three interconnected areas.

Attic

This floor contains the only fully open-plan space in Casa Vicens, designed by Gaudí following the tradition of Catalan domestic architecture. Its defining features include the striking exposed sloping wooden beam ceiling and more than forty windows, creating a dynamic play of light and shadow throughout the day.

It is the most versatile space in the house, suitable for product presentations for up to 60 guests, cocktail receptions for up to 100, or seated dinners for up to 70 guests.
