Important Information About Nominating Beneficiaries

A non-binding nomination is a written request made by you that suggests to the Trustee the beneficiaries that may receive your benefit (being your account balance and any applicable insurance proceeds) in the event of your death whilst a member of Verve Super. The Trustee must consider your nomination but is not bound to follow it. The Trustee has the discretion to pay your benefit to any one or more of your dependants or your Legal Personal Representative.

Who Can You Nominate?

You can nominate your legal personal representative, or one or more of your dependants, or persons with whom you have an interdependency relationship, as your beneficiaries.

Dependant

A dependant is:

a. The spouse of the person (including a qualifying de-facto spouse of the same or opposite sex), any child of the person, and any person with whom the person has an interdependency relationship at the relevant time (being in the case of a deceased person the date of their death); or

b. Any other person who in the opinion of the Trustee is at the relevant time (being in the case of a deceased person the date of their death) wholly or partially dependent on the person for maintenance or support.

Interdependency Relationship

Two persons have an interdependency relationship if:

a. They have a close personal relationship; and

b. They live together; and

c. One or each of them provides the other with financial support; and

d. One or each of them provides the other with domestic support and personal care.

Two people will also have interdependency if they have a close personal relationship but do not satisfy the other requirements of an interdependency relationship because either or both of them suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability.

How Long Does Your Nomination Last?

Your nomination lasts unless or until you amend or revoke it. You can amend or revoke your nomination at any time. As your personal circumstances change, it's important to remember to keep your nomination up to date.

Once properly made, your nomination replaces any previous nomination you may have made. We will write to you and confirm any new, amended or cancelled nomination. We will confirm your current nomination details each year as part of the information provided in your Annual Statement. You can find detailed information about Verve Super in our Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), Target Market Determination (TMD), How Verve Super Works Guide, Insurance Guide, and Financial Services Guide, all of which can be obtained from www.vervesuper.com.au or on request by phoning 1300 799 482.
