|------|-----------|---|----|
| 1745 | | any local bye laws may apply or not to the UK foreshore as opposed to the beach itself. | |
| | | | |
| | | I believe that the foreshore is a generally used term to define the area of shoreline between the mean | |
| | | low and high water mark and that a significant area of the UK foreshore would belong to the Crown | |
| | | estate and that the area above the mean high water mark is classed as the beach and may be privately | |
| | | owned or council etc. | |
| | | | |
| | | If the above is correct can you please confirm if the Crown Estate owns the foreshore of Kent beaches | |
