3. Privacy:

Committees decide whether to accept and publish submissions on the inquiry webpage. When making their decision, committees will consider requests for your name to be kept private but the document published ('name withheld') or for your name and document to be private ('confidential').

Your contact details will not be published, and will be removed by the secretariat. If you are submitting your document on behalf of an organisation, only the organisation name will be published.

Would you like to request:

- ☐ Your name and document be published on the inquiry webpage;
- ☒ Your name be kept private, but your document published on the inquiry webpage; OR
- ☐ Your name and document (or part of your document) be accepted on a confidential basis, and not published on the inquiry webpage or quoted in the report

- Select which privacy request you'd like your submission to uphold
- Click 'Next'
