BOND • PROTECT • BEAUTIFY

Cédric Perres
Managing Director of Sames

Our business is to bond, protect and beautify materials.

By extension, we unite people, protect the environment and beautify the world. This philosophy is ingrained in our DNA as reflected in our acronym Sames « Simply applying most efficient solutions ».

As we celebrate our 100th anniversary, we pay tribute to a century of innovation, industrial expertise, and collective commitment. This milestone symbolizes the strength of a human journey built on knowledge sharing, trust, and the ability to continuously reinvent ourselves while remaining true to our founding values.

With a global presence in all industrial markets, we are experts in paint, adhesive and sealant application solutions.

We are more than an equipment and solutions provider.

We are a committed stakeholder in our ecosystem.

Our ambitions are rooted in our era and in the industrial and ecological challenges of tomorrow.

In the context of the 4th industrial revolution, we support the transformation of our clients' production processes by collaborating with all our networks. Our «Human Touch», our passion for innovation and our culture of excellence enable us to meet our clients' technical, technological, and environmental challenges on a day-to-day basis.

Enjoy being the best together !

Our values

Human Touch

Enjoy being the best together

We are all members of the Sames family.

Therefore, we are a collective body that can contribute information, voice our opinions and be heard.

This helps us grow together towards a common goal.

Committed to excellence and customer satisfaction

Be agile and innovative

Excellence is a collective effort. If we can guarantee the highest level of quality to our customers, it is because we share responsibility for what we deliver and our mutual success.

The relationships we have built and will build with them enriches our technical expertise and enables us to provide them with the answers they seek.

The pleasure of working together and the love of our jobs creates a special bond between all of us.

Accountable for the future

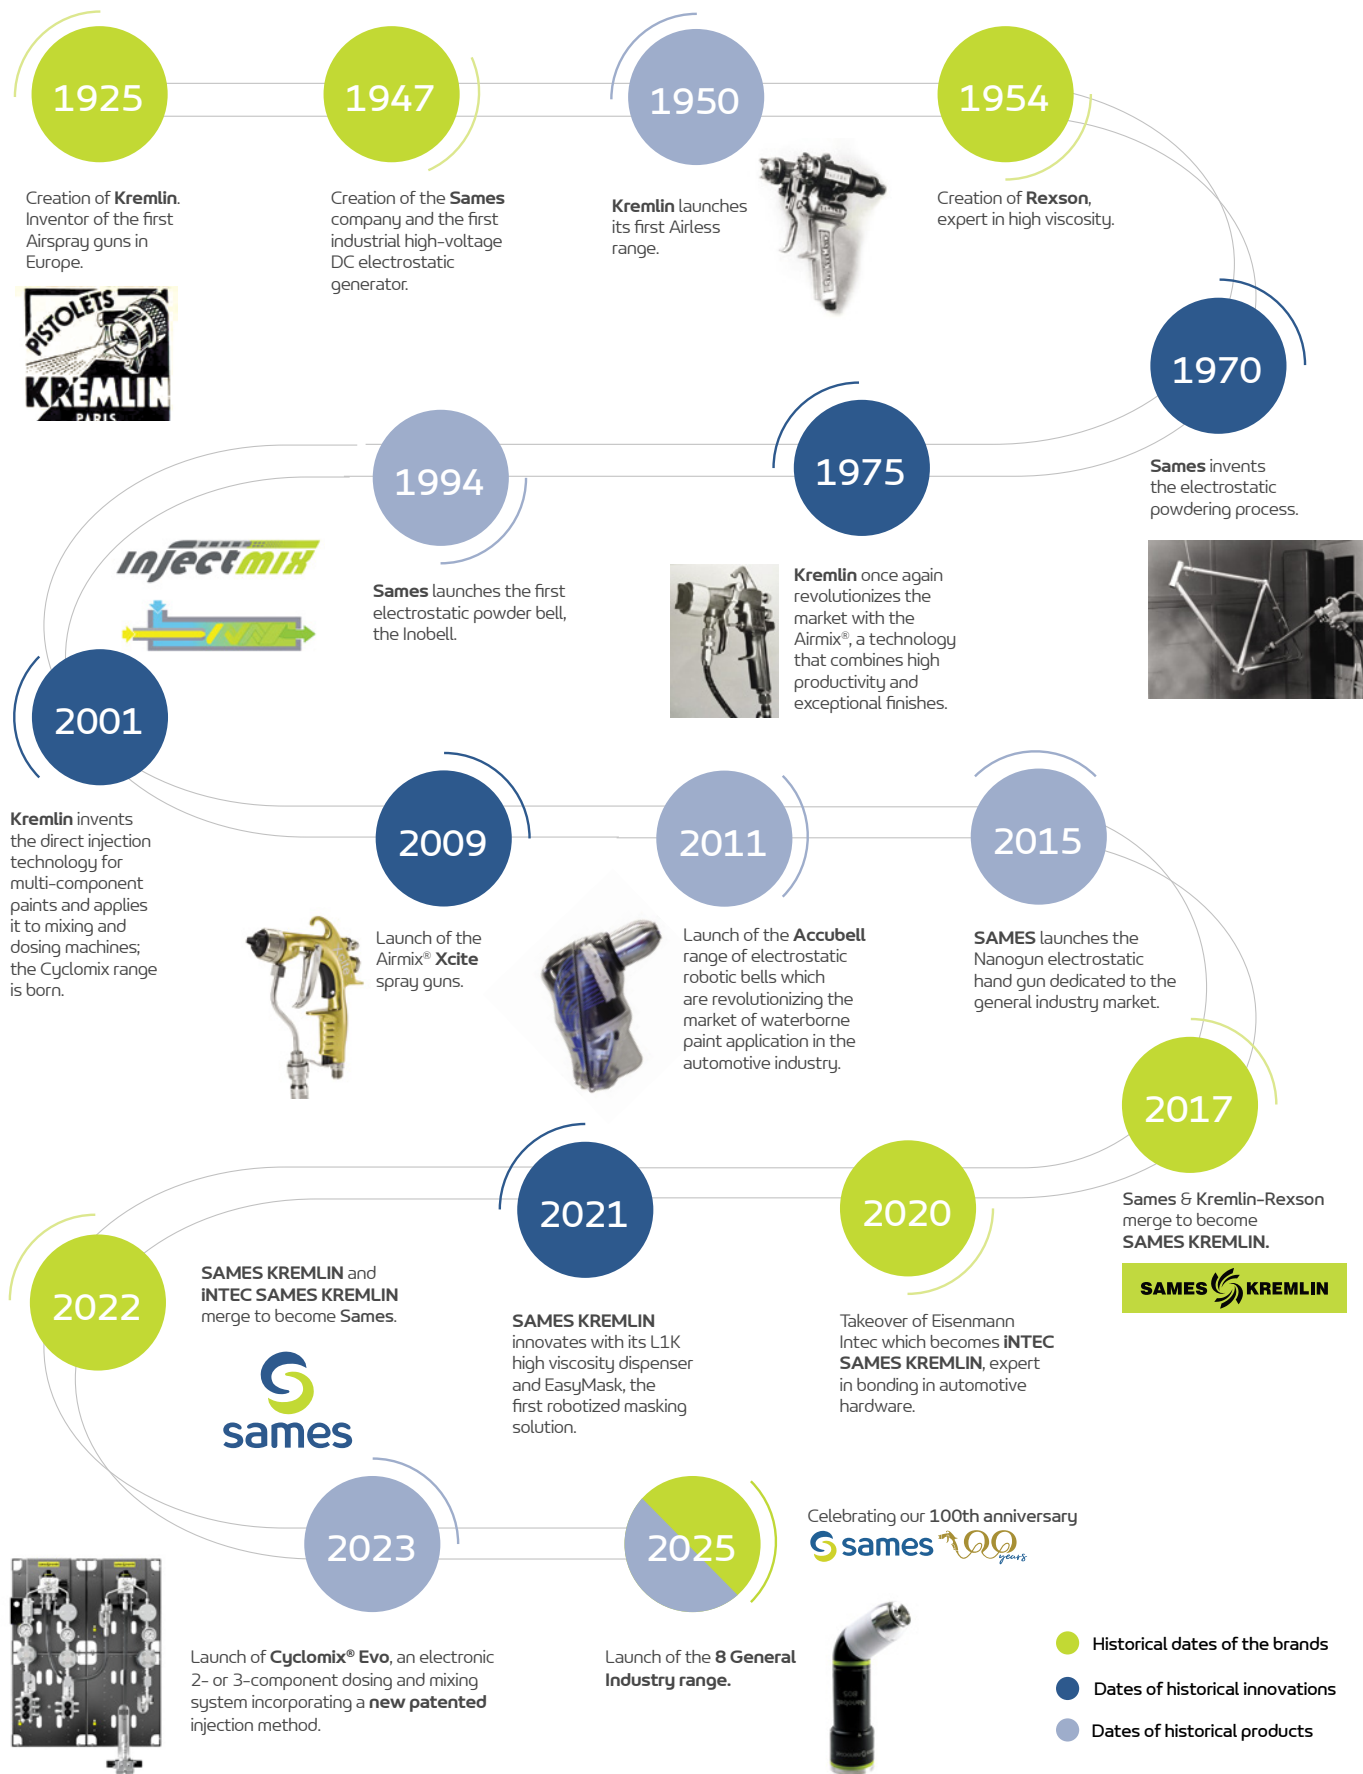

Protect the environment and beautify the world

Since our inception, we have contributed to making the world a better place at every level of our value chain.

We build long-term responsible relationships with our suppliers and partners.

We design sustainable products and services with a controlled impact, and more respectful of people and the environment.
