

Student Regulations for Polimoda Master Courses

SECTION I: DOCUMENTS

ART.1 ENROLMENT/ATTENDANCE CERTIFICATES

Enrolment/Attendance certificates requested by the student are issued by the Academic Affairs Office of Polimoda solely to Students who have paid their course fees in full and who have provided Polimoda with all the academic qualifications required for admission to the course.

- copy of a valid foreigner's permit of stay (see art.2) or receipt for submission of issue/renewal application.

ART.2 DOCUMENTS FOR NON-EU STUDENTS

To be able to attend Polimoda, non-EU Students must have satisfied all Italian immigration law requirements.

Bureaucratic requirements for the issue of a Student's visa and foreigner's permit of stay (or renewal thereof) are the responsibility of the Student, who will therefore have to arrange these documents independently and under their own responsibility.

Students will be required to provide copies of the following documents to the Academic Affairs Office:

- Visa for entry into Italy, issued by the competent Italian Embassy/Consulate;
- Certificate of enrolment issued by Polimoda at the time of registration, stamped by the competent Italian Embassy or Consulate at the time of entry visa issue;
- valid foreigner's permit of stay issued by the Italian Police, or documents proving application for said permit or renewal thereof (copy of post office receipt).

Should the Student fail to provide the above documents within 7 days of the commencement of lessons, Polimoda will require the Student to provide the reasons for this delay within the time period stated in the relevant communication. Following assessment of these reasons and more generally, the Student's circumstances, Polimoda will decide on further action to be taken.

While awaiting issue of the permit of stay or renewal thereof, the Student will be responsible for checking, independently and under their own responsibility, that the procedures and requirements necessary to leave and re-enter the country have been met, including for the purposes of the course (e.g. field trips or study projects).

NON-EU Students already in Italy at the time of admission to the Polimoda course, and with a Student visa for attending institutes other than Polimoda, must, on receipt of official confirmation of admission to the Polimoda course, obtain a new Student visa applicable to the enrolment certificate issued by Polimoda, which is essential for the correct implementation of the whole course.

The Student undertakes to use the Polimoda documents certifying their course enrolment, exclusively to apply for an entry visa and foreigner's permit of stay for the purposes of attending the Polimoda course, and not to use it for any other purpose should they decide not to enter Italy for the specific aim of attending the course.

Polimoda has signed an agreement with Italy4You S.r.l.s., headquartered in Viale Spartaco Lavagnini, 70/72 - The Student Hotel - Collab - Florence, which specialises in assistance services for the administration processes involved in acquiring a foreigner's permit of stay, as specified in article 12 of these regulations.

ART.3 BADGE

During Welcome Week, the Student receives a personal ID badge which must be kept and presented to access the headquarters and services of Polimoda. This card can also be topped up (at the front desk of the Institute) to use the following services:

- use of photocopiers and printers in the computer laboratories; Students must purchase print credits for this type of use and these are available from the front desk. This credit is linked to the username given to the Student and therefore, cannot be transferred to others;
- loans from the Documents Centre (Library).

Badges are personal to the Students, who are responsible for their use and safekeeping, without giving it to third parties. Lost badges must be promptly reported to Polimoda.

SECTION II: ATTENDANCE

ART.4 COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

The weekly timetable includes lessons from Monday to Saturday.

Students are expected to abide by the timetable and to arrive on time. Lecturers will inform Students of the maximum permitted lateness, after which time they may not enter the classroom and will be marked as absent.

Attendance is compulsory and Student absences cannot exceed more than 20% of the total hours for each subject. Students will officially be informed by email, of events and activities (workshops, guest lectures, teaching projects) for which attendance is compulsory. Any absences above this percentage, as well as failure to participate in the above indicated events, will be assessed by the Head of Department, as part of the Student's progress and in order to define the measures to be taken as per article 8.

Absences due to sickness must be proven with a medical certificate, which the Student must present to the Academic Affairs Office on the day of their return. In case of absences lasting over 3 (three) consecutive days of lessons, the Student must inform the Institute, via email, of their absence due to illness.

Non-EU Students:

Should any non-EU Students fail to complete the entire training course within the time period specified on the registration form stamped by the embassy/consulate issuing the Student visa, Polimoda cannot accept any liability for failure to obtain an extension to the resident's permit from the Police.

In the event of non-EU Students who do not begin attending lessons by the second day of course commencement without providing good reason, or who, after commencing the course, are found to have been absent without good reason for more than two weeks, Polimoda will inform the Police of Florence and the Embassy/Consulate that issued the study visa to the Student.

ART.5 COMPULSORY TRAINING ON SAFETY IN THE WORKPLACE

Pursuant to article 2, letter a) of Legislative Decree 81/08, when attending school laboratories, Students will be equivalent to workers and therefore, are subject to the same preventive and protective measures in the interests of their health and safety. Before commencing activities that involve exposure to risk, every Student must follow the on-line "General training in health and safety in the workplace" (4 hours).

At the end of the general training, Students are required to carry out:

- business area Students: 4 hours of specific training (e-learning) - low risk, for the use of computer labs;
- design area Students: 8 hours of specific training (class lecture) - average risk, for the use of design, footwear and accessories lab equipment.

The training is made available by Polimoda both for the e-learning part (which Students complete autonomously), and for the lectures (on the dates and at the times given on myPolimoda).

Only Students who achieved all final certificates above will be admitted to use lab equipment and to start the end of course internship.

ART.6 SUSPENSION OF ATTENDANCE

Requests to suspend or postpone attendance will be assessed and agreed according to related content in the enrolment contract.

ART.7 COURSE TRANSFERS AND CHANGES TO COURSE PROGRAMMES

Students can transfer from one Course to another or change study curriculum, subject to the decision of the Head of Department.

Transferring to a Course regulated by a different department must be authorised first by the Head of Department of the Student's original Course and then, by the Head of Department for the Course to which the Student intends to transfer. These transfers must be formalised by completion of the relevant forms by the Student.

Non-EU Students:

- in the event that the new Course to which the transfer is requested ends on a date after the one stated for the end of the Course on the registration certificate stamped by the Embassy/Consulate, Polimoda cannot accept responsibility in the event that the Police refuse to extend the validity of the foreigner's permit of stay until the end of the new Course;
- in the event that the new Course ends before the date stated for the end of the Course on the registration certificate stamped by the Embassy/Consulate, the aforementioned authorities will be informed of the early conclusion of the course of study.

SECTION III: ASSESSMENT AND FINAL QUALIFICATIONS

ART.8 ASSESSMENT CRITERIA AND RE-SITS – REPETITION OF ACADEMIC YEAR

Students are assessed using grades with marks out of thirty, at the times and according to the methods communicated by the Head of Department at the start of the academic year. The minimum permitted grade is 18 (eighteen). Each academic year will include mid-term and final examinations which will contribute to the Student's overall evaluation.

In case of grades below 18 (eighteen), after considering the number and the seriousness of the shortfall, together with the overall situation of the Student, the Head of Department may grant the Student the opportunity to re-sit the relevant subjects according to the deadlines and methods which will be communicated to the Student.

ART.9 FINAL CERTIFICATE

The final certificate from Polimoda is issued to Students who have attended lessons regularly and achieved sufficient grades at the end of Course. Final certificates are not issued to Students who have not settled all Course fees.

SECTION IV: ON-LINE SERVICES

ART.10 WWW.MYPOLIMODA.COM

Students access on-line services through www.mypolimoda.com providing the username and password received by email as authentication. These authentication credentials are personal to the Student, who will be liable for their use, safekeeping and confidentiality. In the event of loss, the Student must inform Polimoda immediately. It is prohibited to possess or use credentials belonging to another person.

Use of access credentials on the portal must abide by the academic aims for which they are provided as well as comply with Polimoda's policies and/or in any case, without causing any threat to the security of the system.

The following services are currently available:

- Consultation of personal profile:

Students are obliged to inform the Academic Affairs Office of any changes of address, residence, telephone number and email, for the purpose of updating their profile.

- Electronic bulletin board:

Messages and notices about Courses are posted on the electronic bulletin board at www.mypolimoda.com, which Students are expected to consult regularly.

- Academic reports:

All Students can check their academic performance, by checking the online reports and grades for their subjects. Students are expected to inform the Academic Affairs Office of any discrepancies between the information in the online reports and that in their possession. Official transcripts are issued by the Academic Affairs Office at the request of the party concerned.

- Course timetables and lecturer timetables
- Academic calendars

ART.11 LESSONS PERFORMED VIA E-LEARNING

Some of the lessons may be performed, via video-audio link between the Students and the teacher. In such a case didactic contents will be accessed by the Student via e-learning, using his/her own device and by connecting to the platform that Polimoda will decide to use for the purpose; the Student will be provided with all necessary instructions, credential, and links in order to be able to connect to the virtual classes through the platform that Polimoda will decide to use for the delivery of said lessons.

The setting of the e-learning lessons may also provide for the uploading of the documents, of any type, possibly made by the Student as part of his/her participation in the Course, for sharing them with the teacher and / or other students. It is intended that the image and voice of the Student and/or the uploaded/shared documents (e.g. creations, projects, essays, screen of their own devices, etc.) shall be thus transmitted, remotely and in real time, to the teacher and to the class of the Course; the setting of the e-learning may also provide for the audio/video-recording of some of the lessons (also partially), and thus of the images, voices and documents above, during the training activity; in such a case the lessons and the relevant contents will be automatically uploaded on the e-learning platform. At the end of the eventual audio/video-recorded lessons and at the end of the Course, the lessons, including all relevant contents (images, voices, documents) above specified, may also be kept on the platform and within the institutional digital archives of Polimoda without limits of space and time, in order to be used for educational, institutional and promotional purposes by Polimoda.

Anyhow, there will not be the possibility of downloading the lessons on the personal computer devices used by the students from time to time.

Pursuant to these regulations, the student is prohibited from making (and from circulating in any way) audio/video recordings and taking photographs, by means of any kind of device, of the e-learning sessions and thus of the images and voices of teaching staff and students whose right to privacy and image shall be safeguarded; the same applies to the contents of the e-learning lessons, which is absolutely confidential and strictly reserved to the students enrolled in the course. Student will remain personally liable for any audio/video recordings he/she may make in breach of the prohibitions above with Polimoda being entitled to take action against the student in order to be indemnified and hold harmless from any claim, action, direct or indirect damages and liabilities, expenses (also of legal nature) deriving from any breach of said prohibitions.

The Student is also strictly prohibited from having anyone else attending and / or listening to the e-learning sessions and from disclosing or sharing with anyone the link or other access keys received in order to access the e-learning sessions, being the same strictly intended for the sole participation of students regularly enrolled in the Course. Any authentication credentials, links or any other kind of access keys to the e-learning classes are personally entrusted to the student, who will be liable for their use, safekeeping and confidentiality

All information about these services, including relative charges, will be provided to Students registering for the Course during the Welcome Week preceding the start of the Course.

SECTION V: EDUCATIONAL PROJECTS AND CONFIDENTIAL CONTENT - EXTERNAL SERVICES AND INITIATIVES - RULES OF CONDUCT - LIMITATION OF LIABILITY POLIMODA

ART.13 RESPONSIBILITIES, PROHIBITIONS, GUARANTEES AND INDEMNITIES FOR STUDENT'S CREATIONS - CONFIDENTIALITY

As part of the Course, projects may be created in simulation of professional situations, together with audio/video recordings / photographs (also referred to as "shooting"), including in conjunction with companies or other third parties. The Senior Management Team of Polimoda reserves the right to regulate, each time and as deemed appropriate, the way in which educational projects are carried out and the terms of collaboration with these entities.

To this regard, having read and accepted the present regulations, the Student undertakes to guarantee - henceforth - the original nature of everything they produce and/or create as part of the above projects and that their material and intellectual creations will be new and not previously circulated and that they do not breach any copyright and/or existing intellectual and/or industrial property rights, since the work is the exclusive result of their personal creativity, design and devising; the Student undertakes also to guarantee that their material and intellectual creations will not breach the image of subjects that may be portrayed by same, as well as any other form of breach concerning personal damage, human dignity, and the confidentiality and decorum thereof.

In the event that author's copyright or other intellectual and/or industrial property rights concerning material and intellectual creations by the Student belong, even in part, to third parties, the Student undertakes – henceforth – to acquire from said third parties, all authorisations, waivers, and granting of rights needed to use the creations and the relevant materials, and, if necessary, to grant said rights to third parties, before leaving their material and intellectual creations to Polimoda and/or other third party entities with which Polimoda has collaboration agreements.

For the purposes of participation in selections to allocate awards that may be part of educational projects, the regulations may require that:

- the Student is obliged to adhere to a specific confidentiality undertaking towards the company, or other entity, collaborating in the project, concerning the project and contents thereof. This undertaking will be formalised directly between the Student participating in the project and said company (or other entity), by means of a separate document, with regard to which Polimoda will remain completely extraneous and free from all liability;
- the Student will be obliged to sign a specific agreement transferring rights, free of charge, and the relevant waiver to companies collaborating in the project, to cover material, intellectual and industrial property rights for the creations developed by the Student as part of their Course, including the rights of economic exploitation, and without prejudice to the moral rights of said Student. The cession of rights/waiver as above, will be formalised directly between the Student and the company or other entity concerned by means of separate agreement, with regard to which Polimoda will remain completely extraneous and free from all liability.

The educational programme set out by Polimoda does not, however, provide for the possibility that should a Student choose to not take part in said selections, they will in no case be hindered in achieving their grades and relative academic progress.

As part of the educational activities and specifically, concerning teaching projects and other collaborations with external entities, content, data, information and strategies of third parties with which Polimoda collaborates to implement its educational programmes may become known, this data must remain in any case strictly confidential and having read and accepted the present regulations, the Student undertakes not to divulge them, unless within the limits envisaged as part of the project.

ART.14 CONDUCT RULES – LIABILITY – SANCTIONS FOR INFRINGEMENTS OF STUDENTS' REGULATION

- A) Access to the rooms in Polimoda is reserved to Students regularly registered, to other authorised users, to teaching staff and employees. Therefore, excepting the events for which express opening to the public is envisaged, or specific external persons (e.g. Family members for Course completion ceremonies), Students are not allowed to bring third-party subjects into Polimoda.

Students are obliged to comply with the following rules:

- smoking, eating and drinking are not permitted inside Polimoda premises;
- e-cigarettes are not permitted;
- workshop equipment may not be used to create own work or projects not linked to Course work;
- cell phones are not permitted during lessons;
- animals are not allowed inside Polimoda premises and in any case, where lessons take place;
- plagiarising work of other parties is prohibited;
- lessons must not be obstructed or their regular performance prevented in any way;
- Polimoda's reputation must be safeguarded at all times;
- lecture rooms and common spaces must be left tidy and as originally set out.

B) Students remain fully responsible for the consequences of failure to comply with the above rules and, in general, for all damage caused to people and/or property, and they undertake to hold Polimoda free and harmless against all claims or requests for damages, with no exclusion, in any form or at any time or level made or brought by third parties with reference to said consequences and damage.

Without prejudice to the above, insofar as necessary, in the event that a Student should cause damage to themselves or others and/or to property in their possession or in that of others, as a result of improper use of material and/or equipment belonging to Polimoda, this latter cannot be considered responsible in any way.

Polimoda also reserves the right to require the Student to make full and integral compensation for:

- any damage caused by the Student to the facilities/equipment and/or material belonging to Polimoda, as well as for the loss/failure to return said equipment and material;
- any damage caused by the Student to facilities and equipment and/or materials owned by third parties (companies, other schools, etc.) made available to the Student as part of teaching activities and specifically, educational programmes in collaboration with third-party entities and as part of the sessions of audio/video recording and photography (also known as "shooting") envisaged as part of or in connection with the Course being attended.

C) Polimoda reserves the right to suspend Students from lessons or services and laboratories temporarily or in more serious cases, to expel Students, in the event of failure to comply with these regulations, with specific regard to the provisions in articles 13, 23, 24, 25 or Students who in any way cause damage to people and/or property.

ART.15 EXTERNAL SERVICES AND INITIATIVES

According to each case, Polimoda may indicate/point out to its Students the possibility of using third-party services under special conditions (health insurance, accommodation, activation of SIM cards, agreements, assistance for visas and permits of stay, etc.) or taking part in industry events organised by third parties (competitions, conventions, etc.), without prejudice, under any circumstances, to the fact that Polimoda cannot be held responsible with regard to Students who apply for/decide to use said services or to take part in said initiatives, for the quality and/or correctness of services and initiatives, and/or more in general, for anything that Students may need as part of their participation therein, since Polimoda is and will remain, to all intents and purposes, extraneous to any Student-third party relationship.

SECTION VI: INTERNSHIP

ART.16 INTERNSHIP PLACEMENT PROCEDURE

Classes may be followed by an internship with a fashion Company.

Only Students who have met the following conditions are allowed to participate to the selections for the eventual for assignment of an internship:

- all fees paid up to date;
- absences of fewer than 20% of the total number of hours in the study plan for the last academic year;
- sufficiently high grades or recovery of any insufficient grades;

- submission to the Careers Office of a copy of foreigner's permit of stay, copy of Student's visa and certificate of registration with the Italian embassy in the country of origin (non-EU Students only);

- submission of curriculum to the Careers Office.

The Careers Office will inform the Students of the selections.

Students must confirm their application for the selection process no later than the date stated in the notification received; Students can decline a maximum of three (3) selection opportunities regarding their educational profile and in line with their Course. If more than three (3) internship proposals are submitted, Polimoda reserves the right not to send any more selection opportunities to the Student.

The Careers Office will forward the candidates' names and curriculum vitae to the various companies.

Candidate selections, including the choice of those to send to interview, will be up to the companies, which will inform the Careers Office of their choices.

The Student is required to collaborate as much as possible during the stage of identification and organisation of the internship and therefore, if called, they will be obliged to go through the interview stages for which they presented their candidacy.

Students are obliged to complete the internship at the company which is first to confirm the internship following the selection interviews.

No requests and/or claims may be advanced to Polimoda regarding the outcome of the selection process.

If Students, due to special personal needs, is not interested in participating to the internship selections, they can renounce it and directly request the final certificate, signing the relevant waiver form.

As an alternative to an internship, it is possible to request acknowledgement of work experience carried out beforehand or currently, submitting to a statement proving this from the company concerned to the Careers Office.

In case of problems concerning non-compliant behavior by the Student during the selection process and/or the internship, the Head of Education will assess the most appropriate actions, including the possibility of not allowing the Student to carry out the internship or of suspending any internship in progress.

ART.17 INTERN'S DUTIES

In the event that the Student results assignee of an internship, having read and accepted the present regulations, the Student undertakes to:

- treat goods and materials belonging to the company and made available for the period of the internship with the utmost care and attention;
- comply with all instructions provided by company staff as concerns the period of time in the company premises, as well as the use of materials and equipment;
- keep all information and/or details learned as part of the internship and concerning the company's products and processes confidential;
- not to carry out acts in breach of regulations covering intellectual/industrial copyright.

The Student is required to sign a training programme, summarising the aims and methods of the internship.

During the internship, the Student is expected to attend the company regularly and to sign a register certifying their presence.

The internship must be completed in full, except in cases of extreme and proven necessity. At the end of the internship, the Student and the company are required to submit an assessment of the internship.

SECTION VII: GUIDELINES FOR LIBRARY USE

ART.18 POLIMODA'S CENTRO DI DOCUMENTAZIONE/BIBLIOTECA "MATTEO LANZONI" (POLIMODA LIBRARY)

Polimoda Students have access to the Polimoda Library and services therein; Polimoda alumni are allowed library use free of charge, but without home loans.

Information concerning the Polimoda Library and operation thereof, including opening times, is provided on the dedicated pages of the official Polimoda website. Any changes to these times will be communicated on the electronic bulletin board: www.mypolimoda.com. Services close ten (10) minutes before closing time.

Documents (books, serials, non-book material) are placed on open shelves (directly accessible to users) or in archives to which users do not have direct access (library archive, historic archive of periodicals, film library, and rare, prestigious materials, business catalogues and look books). To consult these archives, it is necessary to contact the Polimoda Library staff: in particular, consultation of the historic archive of periodicals must be agreed with the staff at the Centre and depends on the presentation of a letter from a member of teaching staff stating the purpose of the research; staff at the Centre have the right to organise this service based on requirements that may arise; reviews in the historic archive of periodicals cannot be photocopied. E-resource collections complete the collection.

ART.19 WEEKLY LOANS

To use the weekly loan service, Students must present a valid identity document together with their Polimoda badge. The duration of the weekly loan is set at seven (7) days. No more than three (3) documents, monographs and/or films may be borrowed at any one time. Documents cannot be reserved. Loans are not renewable. Documents must be returned to the reference desk at Polimoda Library.

Staff at Polimoda Library have the right to request the return of documents at any time. In the event of delays in returning documents, the user may be suspended from taking out loans for a period of time, as set by the Senior Management Team; Polimoda reserves the right to suspend use of the service for Students who fail to comply with the provisions stated in these guidelines.

ART.20 REPRODUCTION

Students can make copies of documents using the self-service machines (payment required) in the area in front of the entrance to Polimoda Library. It is permitted to copy a maximum of 15% of the total pages of a document. Polimoda Library does not provide a photocopying service.

ART.21 RULES OF CONDUCT AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students are expected to:

- conduct themselves in such a way as not to disturb others;
- carefully use the material made available to them in such a way as to prevent any damage to same;
- use the computer stations made available exclusively for catalogue research and research inherent to the subjects dealt with by Polimoda. No software applications may be downloaded and installed on computer workstations;
- never use glue, scissors or other items that could potentially cause damage;
- never unlawfully copy Polimoda Library documents using a smartphone or other device.

Any Student responsible for failure to return, damage and/or loss of materials, shall be responsible for the replacement thereof with a new copy or for reimbursing the cost of the publication itself, plus an administration fee (€ 50,00).

ART.22 STORAGE OF PERSONAL ITEMS IN LOCKERS

Only the material needed for research and consultation activities is permitted within the Polimoda Library. In any case, it is strictly prohibited to introduce bags, backpacks, trolleys, etc. which must be stored in the relevant lockers outside Polimoda Library.

In any case, we advise Students not to leave valuables in the lockers, since these are not required for research or consultation and there is no possibility to submit claims to Polimoda for the loss or theft of either, as this latter is not obliged in any way to provide for the safekeeping and security of such items.

Lockers can be used from 8:30 to 19:00. When collecting items from lockers, the key must be left in the lock.

Outside these times or for personal safety reasons, Polimoda reserves the right to inspect the contents of lockers, which will be removed, inspected and deposited in the relevant area. Owners must inform the Front Desk staff in order to recover any items not removed from the locker within the stated time.

Under no circumstances can Polimoda be considered custodian of the items deposited in lockers during the Centre's opening times, nor when not collected by same at the times stated above. Therefore, no requests/claims can be made by users to Polimoda in the event of theft and/or loss of the personal belonging.

ART.23 PRODUCT LABORATORIES

To use the workshop equipment, Students must have achieved the certificate of the safety training as stated in article 5.

The following rules apply in all lecture rooms, classrooms and labs:

- any breakdown to the machines must always be reported to Polimoda staff and it is prohibited to intervene independently to repair laboratory equipment;
- when labs are used outside lesson times (see www.mypolimoda.com for timetable planning), they must be vacated fifteen (15) minutes before the start of the next lesson, leaving everything tidy and in its original place;
- it is obligatory to use accident prevention equipment made available and never to leave bulky objects close to work benches;
- Students who want to collect or view material from the stockroom must be accompanied by a teacher authorised by the Head of Department;
- access to the milling cutter workshop is only permitted in the presence of and under the supervision of qualified Polimoda staff (teaching or non-teaching).

ART.24 STORAGE OF EDUCATIONAL MATERIAL IN LOCKERS

Near the workshops, Students have a locker assigned to them by facility staff at the start of the Course. The purpose of this is to store Course material. The locker is allocated for the whole period of the Course.

Polimoda cannot in any case be considered responsible for the safekeeping of items stored in these lockers, or for anything not collected after the end of the Course, since there is no obligation in place to safeguard or supervise said items. Therefore, no requests/claims can be made by Students to Polimoda in the event of theft and/or loss of the above materials.

SECTION IX: COMPUTERS LABORATORIES

ART.25 RULES FOR USE

Computer labs can be used for lessons as well as for workshop purposes (see timetable on www.mypolimoda.com).

To use the computer laboratories, Students must have followed the safety training Course as stated in article 5 regulations.

- It is absolutely prohibited to change computer configurations;
- users are obliged to have their own archive support for data, including during lessons, since this is not available in the Computer labs;
- it is prohibited to disconnect power cords and network cables from the PCs in the computer laboratories. It is prohibited to connect laptops or desktops not provided by Polimoda to the data network or mains electricity. In case of specific educational needs requiring changes to system configurations, these changes are only possible if made by staff from the Technology Centre.

After being registered on www.mypolimoda.com, all Students will receive a username and password to use the following services:

- computers in the labs;

- www.mypolimoda.com;
- printers and photocopiers (there is a charge for this service).

These authentication credentials are given to Students who are responsible for their use and must keep them securely; Polimoda must be promptly informed if said credentials are lost and Students are not permitted to possess and use the credentials of others.

Use of access credentials on the portal must abide by the academic aims for which they are provided as well as comply with Polimoda's policies and/or in any case, without causing any threat to the security of the system.

Works by Students can be archived on servers in a specific dedicated space. Each Student has 1 GB of space, not subjected to backups or able to be expanded by the Technology Centre. Students can use their own removable supports to connect to computers via USB ports on the computers themselves.

Files cannot be stored to the hard disks in the Computer Lab. Any recordings can be removed during the regular revisions carried out by staff in the Technology Centre.

During the summer period, all material stored on the server may be deleted. Students are therefore invited to store their content on their own devices.

Use of central printing services:

for all printing processes, Polimoda uses the centralised printers in the computer laboratories at the various Polimoda sites, as well as the photocopiers located in the product workshops and areas in front of the library. There is a charge for this service; Students must purchase printing credits from the front desk. This credit is linked to the username provided to the Student and therefore, non-transferable. The computers enabled for printing are all the PCs and MACs in the educational infrastructure in the facilities of Polimoda.

ART.26 CLOSURE REGULATIONS

Anything not expressly envisaged by these regulations will be regulated on a case-by-case basis by the Senior Management Team of Polimoda which - where necessary for adaptation to regulations or to the changed situation/ at the organisation - can also issue alternative and/or other provisions, informing the Students thereof.
