TSH Florence: a palace all for you

For a stay in a stunning 19th century palazzo that's also a stylish hotel, check in to The Student Hotel Florence.

You've heard about the art, and you're probably excited about the food. But there's something new in Florence – the vibrant, international community of game-changers who come together in our hotel. As well as a great location near the station and city center, we give you stylish lounges, a games room, state-of-the-art gym and an inviting courtyard piazza. And the cherry on the cake: a rooftop pool with a glorious view.

Our Florence location is more than a hotel: it's a hub for co-living and co-working where business travelers, international students and locals get together to learn, stay, work and play.

Set in a converted palazzo complete with a rooftop terrace and pool, our hotel is the perfect base for anyone seeking inspiration in this beautiful city. So come and settle in for anything from one night to a year, take a desk in our thriving workspace, host a meeting or just pop in for a bite. We've got it all going on!
