3. The Bill of Lading shall be signed in full (not initialed), by the consignor and by the carrier as an acceptance of all terms and conditions contained therein.
4. At the option of the carrier a way-bill may be prepared by the carrier and the way-bill shall bear the same number of other positive means of identification as the original Bill of Lading. Under no circumstances shall the way bill replace the original Bill of Lading.

III CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

1. Liability of Carrier
The carrier of the goods herein described is liable for any loss or damage to goods accepted by him or his agent except as hereinafter provided.
2. Liability of Originating and Delivering Carriers
Where a shipment is accepted for carriage by more than one carrier, the carrier issuing the Bill of Lading (hereinafter called the originating carrier) and the carrier who assumes responsibility for delivery to the consignee, (hereinafter called the delivering carrier), in addition to any other liability hereunder, are liable for any loss or damage to the goods while they are in custody of any other carrier to whom the goods are or have been delivered and from which liability the other carrier is not relieved.
3. Recovery from Connecting Carrier
The originating carrier or the delivering carrier, as the case may be, is entitled to recover from any other carrier to whom the goods are or have been delivered the amount of the loss or damage that the originating carrier or delivering carrier, as the case may be, may be required to pay hereunder resulting from loss of or damage to the goods while they were in the custody of such other carrier. When shipments are interlined between carriers, settlement of concealed damage claims shall be prorated on the basis of revenues received.

4. Remedy by consignor or Consignee

9. Valuation

Subject to article 10, the amount of any loss or damage for which the carrier is liable, whether or not the loss or damage results from negligence, shall be computed on the basis of:

- a) the value of the goods at the place and time of shipment including the freight and other charges if paid: or
- b) where a value lower than that referred to in paragraph (a) has been represented in writing by the consignor or has been agreed upon, such lower value shall be the maximum liability.

11. Consignor's Risk

Where it is agreed that the goods are carried at the risk of the consignor of the goods, such agreement covers only such risks as are necessarily incidental to transportation and the agreement shall not relieve the carrier from liability for any loss or damage or delay which may result from any negligent act or omission of the carrier, his agents or employees and the burden of proving absence from negligence shall be on the carrier.

12. Notice of Claim
