White Wine

Blanc de l’Observatoire – Bekaa Valley, Lebanon 2019 £27.00
An interesting blend of aromatic white grapes: 45% Sauvignon Blanc, 35% Muscat and 20% Clairette. The Sauvignon Blanc gives this wine its finesse and elegance, the Muscat its subtle flowery aroma and the Clairette its fruitiness.

Malagousia, Kitma Gerovassiliou, Epanomi, Greece 2019 £32.00
Expressive & complex aromas of white pear, mango & lemon zest combine with floral notes. Refreshing the palate with a delicious flinty mineral character. This white grape variety was almost extinct until it was discovered in the 1970’s by a Professor of Oenology who gave it to one of his students, Vangelis Gerovassiliou – the rest is wine history!!

Red Wine

Chat. Ksara Reserve du Couvent Bekaa Valley Lebanon 2018 £28.00
Chat Ksara is Lebanon’s oldest winery. It can be traced back to 1857 when Jesuit monks acquired the property. A complex aroma of cloves, vanilla & mulberry. On the palate it has blackberry fruits and supple tannins.

Domaine of the Bee – Languedoc Roussillon 2017 £37.00
50%Granache 50%Carignan. These grapes come from 60-100 year old vines in the Comme de Roy. The result of a personal passion of Master of Wines Justin Howard-Sneyd who purchased 4 hectares of vines close to Maury. Enormously concentrated & intense with a black fruit, round tannins with a slaty minerality and huge finish!

Chateau Musar – Bekaa Valley, Lebanon 1998 £60.00
Pale, jewel-bright garnet. Light, spicy, particularly well- integrated nose, already well developed. A sweet start on the palate; the opposite of heavy; a really lovely wine. Fresh, sweet, with some very slight mintiness & a dry finish. Very long, nicely mature – seems just right now. It will go beautifully with food. - Janice Robinson, March 2018

2000 £60.00
Garnet red with a tawny rim, lovely rose petal freshness on the nose, stunning for a 19 year old wine, beautifully textured palate, length, finesse & a harmonious finish – Steven Spurrier 2019

English Wine – New Hall Vineyards, East Anglia

New Hall Bacchus 2019 £26.00
“Bacchus is England’s answer to Sauvignon Blanc and the best examples such as this have a summer hedgerow-scented style that makes a great alfresco aperitif” – Jane Macquitty, The Times 100 Best wines for Summer.

New Hall Pinot Noir Rose 2019 £26.00
A brilliant salmon rose, with appealing and perfumed aromas leading to delicate summery strawberry notes and soft structure. A wine of purity and freshness.

New Hall Pinot Noir 2018 £31.00
This little wine is quite a big deal. Of the hundreds of English wines I’ve tasted to date, there was not a single red that I would actually drink – in fact most are actively unpleasant. Then along came an unlabelled, unsolicited sample from New Hall, which I opened with curiosity but no particular expectations. And it tasted like Pinot … my first thought was “no, it can’t be…” … I called the winery and they confirmed its identity. They’d kept this one quiet! – Alex Hunt MW, Berkham Wines Cellars
