

sydneynewyearseve.com

CITY OF SYDNEY

Sydney New Year's Eve Guide 2022

Easy Read

How to enjoy New Year's Eve

There will be lots of things happening in Sydney on New Year's Eve.

This info guide says how you can be part of them.

You can watch everything on TV on ABC from 8.30 pm.

You can watch the fireworks online on

- ABC iView www.iview.abc.net.au
- The City of Sydney website sydneynewyearseve.com

You can listen to the radio at KIIS 1065.

They play the music for the fireworks at 9 pm and midnight.

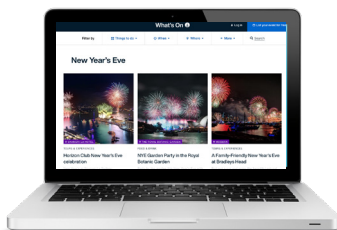

You can watch the fireworks in the city from

- Places around the harbour
- Darling Harbour

To find out where you can watch the fireworks go to www.sydneynewyourseve.com/vantage-points

Some spots are free.

Some spots you need to pay for.

Embarkation Park

Potts Point

- Ticketed – Free.
- Alcohol prohibited.
- Opens at 5pm.

You must still book a free spot if it says ticketed.

What is on around the harbour

7.30 pm Smoking Ceremony

8.30 pm Light Show on the Sydney

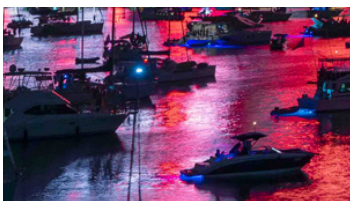

Harbour Bridge

8.57 pm Welcome to Country

9 pm Calling Country fireworks

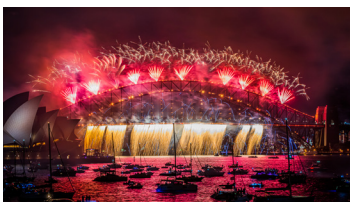

9.15 pm Sydney Harbour Lights

A light show from boats on the harbour

11 pm Sydney welcomes World Pride 2023

Light show for our LGBTIQ+ communities

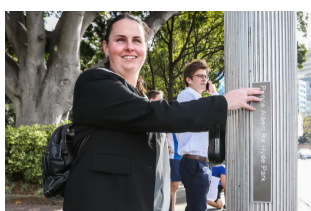

Midnight Fireworks

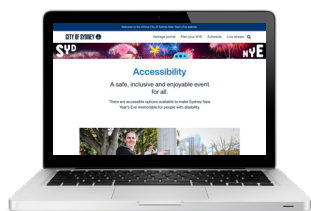

Where to get information

Some places will be accessible for people with disability to see the fireworks.

Accessible means it is easier to get to the places for people with disability.

City of Sydney can help you with information about things like

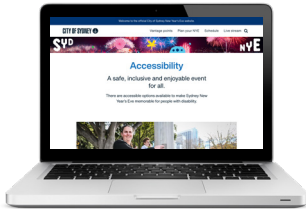

- Accessible areas to watch the fireworks

- Transport on New Year's Eve

- Live audio text.

Go to our website at sydneynewyearseve.com/accessibility

Call us on 02 9265 9333

Send an email to nyeaccessandinclusion@cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au

How to get there

Public transport is the best way to get to the city.

You can use your opal card to go on the train, bus, light rail, metro or ferry.

You can also use your credit card if it is Mastercard, Visa or American Express.

You can also use your linked device.

There will be more public transport to take people into the city and back home.

There will be extra bus stops in the city.

Some stations will have a different way to get in and out.

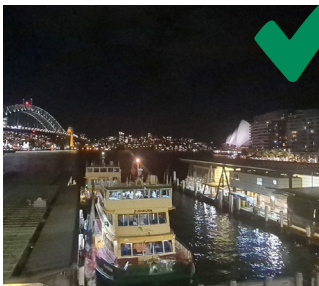

Some stations might be closed in the afternoon and night.

Make sure to plan in more time to get into the city and home.

Ferries will not go while they get ready for the fireworks.

They will start again after the midnight fireworks.

Getting home

Public transport will be very busy.

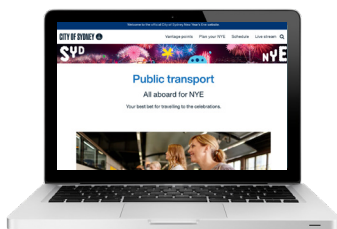

You might want to wait until 1 am to travel home when it is less busy.

You may have to walk further to get to the train or bus.

You might have to go home a different way from the way you came.

To plan your trip and back go to sydneynewyearthseve.com/transport

Roads will be closed

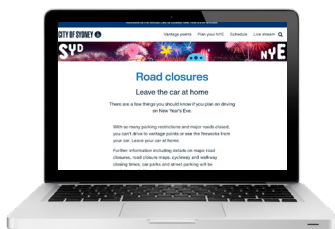

Many roads will be closed on the night.

Taxis might not be able to get to roads that are closed.

There will be very few places to park.

To find out which roads are closed go to sydneynewyearseve.com/road-closures

Plan your night

City of Sydney has lots of helpers to support you.

They can help you with information about things like

- Tickets

- Toilets

- Public transport.

Pick a place to meet your friends or family
if you lose them in the crowds.

Make sure to charge your mobile phone before you go.

This will help if something goes wrong.

Call 000 in an emergency.

What to bring

Bring your own water bottle.

You can fill it up again at the water stations around the city.

You can not bring any bottles made of glass.

You can not bring alcohol to some of the spots where you can watch the fireworks.

If you bring your own food use plastic boxes from home.

Put your rubbish in the bins.

Do not just leave it where you were sitting.

Council for Intellectual Disability made this document Easy Read. CID for short.
You need to ask CID if you want to use any pictures in this document.
You can contact CID at business@cid.org.au.