

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

NENCINI SRL has defined this document as an expression of the commitment undertaken aimed at effectively guaranteeing the best possible conditions of Health and Safety in the workplace.

The Company Management of NENCINI SRL intends to make organizational, instrumental and economic resources available, with the aim of improving the health and safety of workers in the workplace. In order for these objectives to be achieved, the Management undertakes to activate an Occupational Health and Safety Management System (SGSL) developed according to the UNI EN ISO 45001:2018 standard.

To implement this Policy, our company undertakes to:

- Maintain certification according to the applicable standard;
- Involving, educating and making personnel aware of corporate objectives and correct behavior in matters of health and safety through continuous and effective communication (posting on the bulletin board);
- Promote training and awareness-raising activities for its personnel regarding health and safety issues in the workplace by posting them on the bulletin board;
- Meetings between workers and RLS and RSPP
- Try to reduce and eliminate any accidents, near-misses, injuries and illnesses deriving from work activities, reducing the potential and real causes of accidents through the involvement of personnel;
- Ensure compliance with the legal requirements relating to health and safety applicable to the company including the commitments signed by the company itself;
- Review the Health and Safety Management System in order to assess its continued suitability, adequacy and effectiveness;
- Establish specific health and safety objectives that are clearly defined, measurable and subject to periodic monitoring aimed at stimulating the process of continuous improvement;
- The Health and Safety Policy and the aforementioned objectives are brought to the attention of all personnel of our company.

The continuous improvement of the Health and Safety Management System is a commitment of the Organization through internal audits that guarantee the services provided to its customers and in general for all the company activities carried out.
