DANIEL WARWICK

Daniel Warwick has established a reputation for cinematic scale and offbeat narratives—or, as he puts it, “big and bonkers!” This has made him widely respected as one of the most original creative minds directing commercials today. He has won at least one Grand Prix and a full spectrum of festival awards, directing everything from social media content to Super Bowl ads for brands such as Volvo, HBO, Kathmandu, Mercedes-Benz, WeTransfer, and Coors.

If you’re looking for him, it’s best to start in Germany, Portugal, or Los Angeles... though, to be honest, he could pop up anywhere and disappear again like a human whack-a-mole. So be ready with your mallet!
