

MY LIFE AS AN ALPHABET: EXPLORING NARRATIVE

INFERRING CHARACTERS FEELINGS

Readers pay attention to the characters in their stories. They notice how they act, speak, what they say and what they think.

Find examples in the text of a character's actions, words and thoughts. What does this suggest to you about how the character feels?

Actions, words or thoughts	This tells me the character is feeling ...