

DISCUSSION ROUND TABLE

1. Students work in groups of four.
2. Fold a piece of paper into four squares as in the table below.
3. As each student reads the selected text, they take notes in the top left-hand square.
4. After reading, they take turns discussing the text, sharing reflections, and recording the ideas of their peers.
5. After each team member has shared their summaries, individuals can summarise their understanding of the text or their response to a question.
