

If the world were a village of 100 people:

- a) Which continent would most people come from?

- b) Which language would most people speak?

- c) How old would most people be?

- d) What is the most common animal found in the village?

- e) How many people would be Buddhist?

- f) What percentage of people can access a university education?

- g) What fraction of the community has access to safe drinking water?

- h) What percentage of people will never learn to read or write?

- i) How many villagers do not have electricity?