

Our Venue...

Everyman Crystal Palace: The prominent Art Deco building at the heart of the Crystal Palace triangle, that originally opened as The Rialto Cinema in 1928, has been lovingly restored and given a new lease of life. Everyman Crystal Palace boasts two bars, the first at ground floor which offers a grand brass and marble bar with a collection of intimate seating areas and, on the first floor, the more cosy space gives amazing views towards central London. In classic Everyman style, the design combines retro touches, luxurious materials and detailing, and raw exposed construction materials.
