

Pretreatment:

For optimal results you may need to use pigment suppression therapy as well as products that will condition your skin for two weeks prior to your treatments.

If you suffer from cold sores, Dr. Orloff will prescribe a medication that prevents an outbreak.

Following the treatment you will need to limit sun exposure and follow the recovery regiment (as well as the cooling and such).

Following your recovery you will notice immediate results, but improvement continues over the next several months.