

WVU Medicine Children's Telemedicine is Expanding!

Patients and families often face barriers to receiving specialty care, including the distance traveled, reliable transportation, the cost of travel, child care, and having to take time off work. Telemedicine clinics allow patients to receive the same quality care close to home without having to travel.

WVU Medicine Children's has telemedicine and outreach clinics for a variety of specialties at locations throughout the state, including:

Buckhannon

Endocrinology, Nephrology, Neurology, Pulmonology

Martinsburg

Adolescent Medicine, Cardiology, Endocrinology, Gastroenterology, Genetics, Hematology/Oncology, Infectious Diseases, Neonatology, Nephrology, Neurology, Neurosurgery, Orthopaedics, Pulmonology, Rheumatology, Surgery, Urology

Summersville

Cardiology (in person), Endocrinology (in person), Gastroenterology, Nephrology, Neurology, Neurosurgery, Pulmonology

Vienna

Adolescent Medicine, Cardiology, Endocrinology, Gastroenterology, Genetics, Infectious Diseases, Neonatology, Nephrology, Neurology, Neurosurgery, Orthopaedics, Pulmonology, Rheumatology, Sleep Medicine, Surgery, Urology

Weirton

Gastroenterology, Neurology, Pulmonology

Wheeling

Adolescent Medicine, Cardiology, Endocrinology, Gastroenterology, Genetics, Neonatology, Nephrology, Neurology (in person), Neurosurgery, Orthopaedics (in person), Pulmonology, Rheumatology, Surgery, Urology

 WVU Medicine Children's

To learn more, call 855-WVU-CARE.
WVUKids.com