Saint Teresa of Avila Parish is a diverse Catholic community of faith that embraces everyone, without exception. We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist, and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love for the salvation of all people.

A Community Thank You

St. Teresa's sends a sincere thank you to Vincent Colombet, the new owner of Geppert's Meat Market, and his staff. They have decided to continue the previous owner's generous donation of ground beef to our L & F's dinners. As you stop in 1964 N. Halsted to say "hello and thank you," please note the addition of delicious bakery items from one of Colombet's other enterprises, La Boulangerie bakeries.

Please support those who support us.

Calling all St. Teresa Gardeners

Saturday September the 19th will be the last day the Landscape Committee will work on the gardens around the parish. We could use your help in two ways:

Join us from 9-11 on the 19th to help trim, weed and transplant some plants. Bring gloves, a garden trowel, and your mask. We work in small groups and keep social distancing.

If you have a garden at home and want to divide some of your perennials, we could use hosta's of all types and hydrangeas. If you don't have a garden and want to buy some plants to donate, most perennials are on sale right now. Bring the plants to the front of the church on Saturday the 19th at 9 am.

Thanks for considering helping.

Social Justice Accomplishments

St. Teresa's Peace and Social Justice Committee is partnering with the Coalition for Spiritual and Public Leadership (CSPL) to promote economic justice by supporting worker-owned cooperative development.

What is a cooperative?

Cooperatives are people-centred enterprises jointly owned by workers. They are democratically controlled by and for their members to realize their common socio-economic needs and aspirations. As enterprises based on values and principles, cooperatives put fairness and equality first allowing people to create sustainable enterprises that generate long-term jobs and prosperity.

Managed by producers, users or workers, cooperatives are run according to the 'one member, one vote' rule. (<https://www.ica.coop/en>)

Contact Leah Hanson at hanson.leah17@gmail.com if you are interested in learning more about being a business mentor and/or getting involved in this economic justice project!

Your Vote Matters

This is an election year and this year, in lieu of the Hunger Walk, the Greater Chicago Food Depository is running a program in conjunction with partner agencies, like the St. Teresa Food Pantry, to get out the vote by helping folks with Voter Registration, Early Voting and Mail In Ballots. This Get Out the Vote campaign is not political and not tied to a particular party or candidate but rather is simply trying to help folks participate in our democracy by voting.

This aligns well with our community at St. Teresa and we believe that participating in this program is good for our parish, the guests at our Food Pantry and our community. Voting information and registration will be available to guests at the food pantry as well as parishioners and folks in the neighborhood. In order to be successful, we need some volunteers to help with this. Participation will mean attending a couple of training sessions (one hour each and they are online) and then volunteering one or more Saturdays in the fall during the Food Pantry hours (Saturday mornings) to help with this program. Social distancing and masks will be required. If you are interested, please email Amy Long (amy\_h\_long@yahoo.com) or Mairead Reidy (mairead.reidy@yahoo.com).
