We see ourselves as uniquely able to engage in dialogue with people of all faiths and act as peacemakers in our city. Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist, and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ’s Love for the salvation of all people.

Stewardship Reflection:

This holy day should also remind us of all those things for which we should be thankful. Gratitude is at the basis of a life of stewardship. It is through thanksgiving for all we have received, especially the Holy Body and Blood of Christ through the Eucharist, that we find the motivation and the commitment to be good stewards.

Facts for Today-June 19th:

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ:

In today's Gospel, we find there are twelve baskets of bread leftover. Jesus turns five loaves of bread into enough for thousands. What did they do with all that leftover bread? Why was there so much bread leftover in the first place? Bread doesn't last that long in the open air. It gets hard, moldy and being out in nature, it attracts all sorts of interested parties. Luke wrote that the bread put into the baskets were fragments, pieces leftover from what those who were present didn't eat. Obviously, they either had their fill or didn't care for the bread recipe. Looking back through the lens of Catholicity, we can see more than bread, we see substance—we see the foreshadowing of the Eucharist and the Eucharist cannot be wasted! Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We may not have the answers to all the questions above, but we do have the answer, so rejoice in the truth, the source and summit of our faith!

Honoring St. Joseph on Father's Day:

It is only fitting that we praise and pray to the most beloved earthly father we have in the Bible. Joseph was chosen by God, just as Mary was, to raise Jesus and provide a necessary role as His father all the years they had together. God knew Joseph's heart was good and that he would make a wonderful dad, husband and faithful leader of their family.

Saint Joseph experienced the same difficulties in life we all do, yet he lived an exemplary life and established an ideal that is well-worth emulating for all fathers who have come after him. Saint Joseph was a man of compassion and caring. He was a man possessed of unwavering faith in God. He was a man who loved and protected his family.

Let us remember to ask Saint Joseph for his intercession on behalf of all dads and that his holy example continue to be an inspiration to all fathers.

Happy Fathers Day!

On The Lighter Side: Under Five

A little child in church for the first time watched as the ushers passed the offering plates.

When they neared the pew where he sat, the youngster piped up so that everyone could hear: "Don't pay for me Daddy, I'm under five."
