Challenged by the Gospel, nourished by the Eucharist, and inspired by the teachings of Saint Teresa of Avila, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's Love for the salvation of all people.

From Fr. Frank:

Looking forward to returning to the parish on Wednesday, August 31. I hope and pray that it has been a good Summer for all of you, as we approach the beautiful season of Autumn. My Summer has been filled with lots of classes, studies, reading and reflecting. Very busy and intense, even including homework!!! Can't wait to be back.

I'm truly grateful for the Staff in managing the day to day realities of the parish with such dedication and care. We are so fortunate to have the many lay leaders and volunteers who work tirelessly in their various ministries. A vibrant and committed parish is one that remains so without the pastor's presence. So many of you truly believe that your Baptism empowers you to share in the one priesthood of Jesus Christ. I am so inspired by your love and dedication to the Mission of St. Teresa's: to be a Catholic community, welcoming to all who want to share in the Mission. Borders of race, culture and religion must be crossed and new ways of being a parish must be forged.

I want to thank the two main Presiders who celebrated the various weekend, weekday and wedding liturgies: Fr Ed Udovic and Fr. Alphonse. They are such wonderful priests and preachers. How blessed we are that they are a part of our parish life.

It's an exciting time of the year, with religious education ready to start, and the plans for First Reconciliation, First Communion and Confirmation taking shape. Our annual fundraiser is right around the corner, November 19, led by the best of leaders.

I'm looking forward to a new RCIA team that will prepare those adults wanting to be baptized or received into full communion with our Church. All of our outreach ministries, including Loaves and Fishes, the Food Pantry, our Refugee ministry, Care of Creation Committee continue to be strong in their love and care for the poor and homeless. I look forward to reengaging with our prison ministry.

It will be so refreshing to see you all face to face. Thank you for your prayers and support during this time of soul searching.

On the Lighter Side: The Prayer Request

A businessman needed a million dollars to close an important business transaction. He went to church to pray for the money. He knelt and started praying next to a man who was praying for a hundred dollars he needed to pay an urgent debt. The businessman took out his wallet and pressed the hundred dollars into the other man's hand. Overjoyed, the man got up and left the church. The businessman then closed his eyes and prayed, "And now, Lord, that I have your undivided attention..."
