Gospel Reading: Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus tells the parable about the wicked tenants.

Feasts and Saints:

10/9- St. John Leonardi, Priest

10/11- St. John XXIII, Pope

10/6- St. Casllistus I, Pope and Martyr

Financials: August 2023

Reflections for Today:

How do the vineyard narratives emphasize God's enduring connection to humanity despite their mistakes?

Daily Prayer for Today:

Lord our God, we thank you for giving us a strong fortress in Jesus, the only Lord, with whom we can oppose the whole raging, hateful, lawless, and cruel world. Come what may, we want to hold high the banner of Jesus Christ. In him we want to wait for the time when your mighty deeds will fully establish your kingdom for all nations on earth. You are our God and our Father. Protect us, and give light to our hearts so that we can always be joyful and can hope in you forevermore. Amen.

Stewardship:

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

From Fr. Frank:

I want to thank you for responding so well to my asking parishioners to purchase tickets for Together in Joy and the raffle.

What a joy to see such a response that bolstered the spirits of the planning committee. Several people are even changing their plans to attend the event.

This event is the one major fundraiser we have that supplies the necessary funds to balance our budget. After Sunday collections, Christmas and Easter, we are in need of nearly $200,000 to fulfill our budget needs. Unfortunately, nothing is actually saved unless we receive surprise donations.

On another front, October is the time to count those attending Mass to see how the parish is attracting new parishioners.

We are nowhere near where we were before the pandemic, approximately 640 people attending our masses. We range anywhere from 459-500. But we don't have the Saturday evening mass or the Spanish mass, together giving us 100 people attending. Ironically, collections are higher now with only 4 Masses.

The other parishes are not any different in less parishioners attending mass. Our live stream viewing is quite significant, but their number is not included in the October, unfortunately.

This Sunday, October 8th, Jose Cervantes will be hosting the post Mass social time with some of his home made delicious Mexican dishes. He is one of Chicago's greatest chefs!!!

The rest of October will be very busy at St Teresa's with our anniversary on October 15, celebrating Carmen Ubides and her remarkable legacy in our parish. A Puerto Rican feast awaits after each Mass.

On October 22, we will have our Ministry Fair giving people an opportunity to get involved in various ministries.

On October 29, we celebrate Halloween, the Saints, Autumn with decorating small pumpkins and having "stations" of tasty treats. I plan on baking a couple of haunted mansion cakes, which will be SPOOOOKTACULAR!!! (I hope)

From the Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement Program . . .

Dear St. Teresa of Avila Parishioners,

On behalf of the Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement program and the refugees you support, I would like to extend a huge thank you to all of you. Earlier this year, the resettlement team welcomed a family of six from Syria. The mother of the family immediately notified us that she was pregnant and due to deliver soon. This was a surprise to all of us and we quickly realized that we needed a helping hand. We knew that we could depend on the St. Teresa of Avila community to support us as we welcomed our newest family's first baby boy. The refugee ministry mobilized to assess the needs of both mom and baby while creating a plan to fulfill those needs.

We were all in for a bigger surprise when baby arrived via emergency c-section five weeks before we were expecting him to. The St. Teresa of Avila refugee ministry took this new urgency in stride and was prepared to immediately gather and provide vital baby items to the family. We had nothing prepared— due to you all stepping up in a time of urgent need, baby and mom had the items they needed.

Thank you for warmly welcoming this lucky baby to the world while welcoming his family to the country.

Sincerely,

Emily Parker
