

FEEL THE HEART BEAT

... IN CZECH WINE

✓ CZECH WINES OF THE FUTURE

Czech National Wine Centre welcomes you to a colourful tasting zone consisting of 10 different wineries in person and more than 100 samples in the free tasting area!

Resembling the iconic stand from the previous years, our booth at ProWein 2025 boasts a sleek and contemporary design, inviting visitors to explore the diverse world of Czech winemaking in a sophisticated setting. With its open layout and welcoming ambiance, the stand serves as a captivating focal point amidst the bustling atmosphere of the exhibition.

We are presenting these:

LOCAL DARLINGS

You definitely know some of them, Grüner Veltliners, Blaufränkisch or even Welsch Rieslings but are they any different in Czechia? Come to the booth and meet local Pálava (white and aromatic) or St. Laurents (light and fruity red), they are quite unique to our region.

THE INTERNATIONALS

You can find them in many places in the world, those with Czech roots are pretty solid in acidity, spiciness and fruitiness, taste some great Rieslings, Sauvignon blancs, Chardonnays, Pinots Blanc and Noir too.

BUBBLES & NATURAL & PIWI

That is the trend all around the world - Czechia being no exception, meet and taste DEMETER samples, as well as other organic or low intervention wines.

In the hall 9 look for the CIRCLES designed by CHYBIK + KRISTOF ASSOCIATED ARCHITECTS.

Czech booth (H89) is talking to each visitor by circles and rounded shapes so typical for winemaking. The representation is unbelievably colourful: meet micro, family, boutique winemakers beside the representants of some biggest companies in the country.

You will find the winners and finalists of various important competitions in Czechia (Winery and Winemaker of the year, Czech National competition etc.) as well as successful exporters around the globe. Czech wine has already found its fans in many different countries from Japan, through the UK and Sweden over to the US and Canada.

WHAT'S SO SPECIAL ABOUT CZECH WINES?

Moravian and Bohemian white wines are characterized by their fascinating spectrum of aromas, rich extractive substances and harmonious combination of full-bodied flavours along with fresh, vibrant acidity. Recently, red wines have also been gaining ground, which, thanks to modern technological processing, are full-bodied and expressive, yet soft and velvety, with a pleasant fruity aroma. Rosé wines are also keeping the trend - beautiful not only for their colour but also for their exceptional youthful character.

BOOTH COORDINATOR

Czech National Wine Centre is a non-profit organisation promoting and supporting Czech and Moravian wines and winemaking by organizing competitions and maintaining tasting exhibition of the Wine Salon, by publishing specialized literature, organizing trainings and seminars and cooperating with other wine organizations.

"Giving sparkle to life's big and small moments"

ABOUT:

The first sparkling wine started to mature in our cellars in 1942. Thanks to this long tradition and the strong trust that we enjoy among our consumers, we produce more than half of the sparkling wines that are drunk in the Czech Republic. We are among the most important grape growers in the country and we are also the biggest processor of Moravian grapes. Our strength comes from the soil and landscape where we operate. Sustainable business practices and protection of natural sources are at the centre of our interests.

Bohemia Sekt won the 2022 Czech Winery of the Year in the category of large wineries and was awarded for the "incredible performance of the Bohemia Sekt Company and the constantly improving quality of its wines" by the expert jury of the sparkling wine section at the prestigious Concours Mondial de Bruxelles 2022.

IWAYINI

"Moravian wines without compromises"

ABOUT:

IWAYINI is a young Moravian micro-winery, founded by Martin Zůl in 2020. Martin decided to focus on a few varieties from unique tracks and create harmonious wines that respect the given terroir. IWAYINI wines are divided into two lines according to their method of vinification. The ISIKO line contains lightweight drinkable, fresh and juicy wines. In the Umlando line hides more complex, layered wines that epitomize return to fermentation and maturation of wines in wooden barrels with longer work on yeast. Since the year 2023 the winery started using the method pressing of whole grapes in all batches. The winery has vineyard in Kurdějov, which has a unique closed microclimate, highly sloping tracks and great exposures.

LAHOFER

ABOUT:

A progressive winery inspired by traditional winemaking practices with the use of modern production technologies, LAHOFER is one of the largest grape growers in the Czech Republic with 430 hectares of its own vineyards exclusively in the Znojmo wine region. Winery's production is around 600000 bottles of premium wines per year, the winery is the proud owner of the title Winery of the Year 2020 and 2021 in its category.

The philosophy of LAHOFER winery is to produce juicy wines with the right balance of acidity and natural residual sugar. Vines are tended with love and care, using an eco-friendly integrated production system. The winery produces wines in the process of controlled fermentation not only in stainless steel tanks; it also uses wooden barrels, concrete tanks, and qvevri containers. The outcomes of its work are steadily appreciated by expert committees at major international and domestic wine shows. The architecturally exceptional building of its new headquarters has become significant.

WINERY

"We don't rush our wines"

---

ABOUT:

We are a boutique winery run by two friends, carrying the more than 50 years old family tradition of the wine production.

The Znojmo region, where our vineyards are located and all our wine production comes from, belongs without doubt to one of the best wine-growing regions of the Czech Republic, neighbouring the Austrian Weinviertel.

Our winery emphasizes the quality of each wine, especially its typical variety according to the unique aspects of the terroir as well as balance and harmony. We produce wines with VOC original Znojmo certification, these are mainly fruity wines. Our specialty wines are the Grand cru or those produced with oak or acacia aging barrels, which are suitable for fine dining.

We produce every single batch in around 3000 bottles every year. You can try and taste our wines in selected wine shops or in the whole range of restaurants, from regional to Michelin-starred ones.

THAYA

"Your senses matter here"

ABOUT:

THAYA vineyards are located in the wine region Znojemsko, a region typical for its full-flavoured and fresh wines. It is the River Dyje or Thaya, which, through its thermoregulatory influence, together with the cold winds from the Bohemian-Moravian Highlands, gives the local wines their unmistakable spicy taste and fullness. Thanks to the granitic subsoil and the loess with a mixture of calcareous clays, the Veltliner, Sauvignon and Riesling are particularly outstanding.

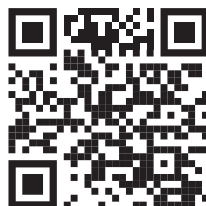

THAYA farms about 105 hectares of own vineyards located in the immediate vicinity of the winery and in the neighbouring wine-growing villages. The vineyards adjacent to the Podyjí National Park have been known since the ancient Romans for their unique sunny location.

THAYA winery is repeated finalist in competitions such as Winery of the Year and Winemaker of the Year, THAYA wines are also regularly successful in international competitions, and with each harvest the winery moves forward.

"Story of Wine and Mining"

ABOUT:

Every sip of our wine tells the story of its origin - a tale of winemaking tradition, mining heritage, and the unique terroir of the Slovácko wine subregion. Our vineyards are located on the site of the former Tomáš lignite mine, founded in 1934 by Tomáš Baťa. The winery is named after St. Barbara, the patron saint of miners. Thanks to the sandy soil and warm climate, we have ideal conditions for growing both white and red grape varieties. The St. Barbara Winery is a place where history combines with modern winemaking philosophy.

VOC Mikulovsko

The first VOC appellation system in the Mikulov wine sub-region was introduced by the VOC Mikulovsko z.s. The challenging approval process for granting the VOC Mikulovsko label was successfully completed in 2011 and further developed into its current form, i.e. a multi-stage appellation. For the first time, the Mikulov sub-region was able to offer consumers wines with a guarantee of origin, high quality and originality confirmed by the winemakers themselves. Thanks to the high quality and diversity of the vineyards of the Mikulov wine sub-region and the multi-stage appellation system, the winemakers have included eight typical varieties in the appellation, which are traditionally grown here and achieve exceptional quality. These are Chardonnay, Pálava, Riesling, Welshriesling, Pinot Blanc, Pinot Gris, Pinot Noir, and Sylvaner.

VOC Znojmo

VOC Znojmo is the first appellation system in the Czech Republic, established in 2009 to certify wines from the Znojmo wine sub-region. This system focuses on three key grape varieties: Sauvignon, Riesling, and Grüner Veltliner, ensuring that wines bearing the VOC Znojmo label meet stringent quality standards and exhibit a distinctive regional character. The initiative was founded by Jiří Hort and Jaroslav Chaloupecký, and it has grown to include 22 selected wineries. VOC Znojmo also features an exclusive Royal Collection, introduced in 2013, which highlights wines with significant aging potential.
