GIANT EAGLE SIGNS LEASE FOR NEW CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS IN CRANBERRY TOWNSHIP, PENNSYLVANIA

Retailer's new space will welcome Team Members into a hybrid in-office working model this upcoming spring

PITTSBURGH – Giant Eagle, Inc., one of the nation's leading food, fuel and pharmacy retailers, has executed a lease agreement on an office building that will serve as the company's new headquarters. The office is located at 700 Cranberry Woods Drive in the Cranberry Woods Business Park, located in Cranberry Township, approximately 20 miles north of Pittsburgh.

Giant Eagle corporate office Team Members will officially be welcomed into the new headquarters this upcoming spring and will operate in a hybrid model with specific days spent in the office and others either working in a remote environment or spending time in our stores and distribution centers.

"We believe that in-person collaboration is vital to grow our business and forge meaningful connections with our customers and each other," said Giant Eagle CEO Bill Artman. "Our new headquarters will provide a variety of working and meeting spaces that will foster teamwork and creativity to help us continue to think like our customers, anticipating their needs and delivering solutions to make their lives easier."

The four-story, 100,000-square-foot building features several amenities for current and prospective Team Members. Team Members will enjoy wellness offerings, including an on-site gym and walking and jogging trails. Dining options for Team Members include both an on-site cafeteria and numerous nearby restaurants. The Cranberry Woods Business Park is conveniently located just off Interstate 79 and the Pennsylvania Turnpike, maximizing convenience for Team Members traveling to and from Giant Eagle's locations throughout its five-state operating region.
