KEY RISKS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

You should not invest in this Fund if you do not understand or are not comfortable with the accompanying risks.

Market/Price Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to changes in the market prices of stocks/equities. It refers to the portfolio's exposure to marked-to-market valuation due to market price fluctuations of the stocks/equities.
Liquidity Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to the inability to sell or convert assets into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at a price that could result in a loss. This may be caused by low trading volume due to different reasons such as securities with small or few outstanding issues, absence of buyers and/or sellers (limited buy/sell activity) or underdeveloped capital market.
Credit Risk / Default Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to a borrower's failure to pay principal and/or interest in a timely manner on instruments such as bonds, loans, or other forms of fixed income security which the borrower issued. This inability of the borrower or counterparty to make good on its financial obligations may have resulted from adverse changes in its financial condition thus, lowering credit quality of the security, and consequently lowering the price (market/price risk) which contributes to the difficulty in selling such security.
Foreign Exchange Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. The exchange rates depend upon a variety of global and local factors, e.g. interest rates, economic performance, and political developments.
Country Risk:	The possibility for an investor to experience losses arising from investments in securities issued by/in foreign countries due to the political, economic and social structures of these countries. There are risks in foreign investments due to the possible internal and external conflicts, currency devaluations, foreign ownership limitations and tax increases of the foreign country involved which are difficult to predict but must be taken into account in making such investments.
Index Tracking Risk:	The possibility for the Fund not being able to achieve a level of return that closely mirrors the index being tracked due to operational and fund management expenses.
Other Risks:	Your participation in the UITFs may be further exposed to the risk of any actual or potential conflicts of interest in the handling of in-house or related party transactions by Metrobank. These transactions may include own-bank deposits; purchase of own-institution or affiliate obligations (stocks, mortgages); purchase of assets from or sales to own institution, directors, officers, subsidiaries, affiliates or other related interests/parties; or purchases or sales between fiduciary/managed accounts.

The Fund invests only in high-credit quality assets which are evaluated using a rigorous internal scoring model required under the Trustee's accreditation process and BSP regulations. Internal risk limits and position limits together with regulatory exposure limits are monitored, reviewed and strictly adhered to on a daily basis. The Fund may also use financial derivatives solely for hedging risk exposures.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Global markets remains resilient amid Covid-19 Delta variant posing risk to growth outlook as vaccinations continue to be effective in preventing critical complications among patients; with some countries already announcing booster programs to support further re-opening of their economies. Even though peak rate of growth have passed, August economic data still indicates expansion which allowed global equities to post positive returns. Furthermore, late month rally for the equity markets was boosted by Federal Reserve Chair Powell's comments during the annual Jackson Hole Symposium; his dovish tone and emphasis on cautiousness about scaling back monetary support was well received by the market.

Euro area equities ended the month in the green mainly supported by positive GDP estimates. Additionally, Germany and France's economy grew in the 2Q 2021 with both GDP figures beating market expectation. Manufacturing and services purchasing manager index still at healthy levels even though marginally lower on a month-on-month basis. The spread of the Delta variant continue to raise concerns over the economic recovery which pulled business and consumer sentiment lower for the month despite a 70% inoculation rate for some large Eurozone countries. With Euro zone economy showing signs of progress, European Central Bank is now considering reduction of its Pandemic Emergency Program which has kept the Euro zone afloat at the onset of the Covid health crisis; while formal announcement of such tapering isn't expected until December, market anticipates any monetary stimulus reduction to be gradual as not to derail economic growth.

The target fund grew by 2.01% MoM led by the gains in technology sector. Top performer was Infineon Technologies AG which designs, manufactures and markets semiconductor products for various industries. It was able to take advantage of the surge in demand for semiconductors amid component supply shortage which is expected to extend until 2022. Meanwhile, laggards for the month were consumer staples and consumer discretionary, jointly dragging the fund value lower by 0.56%.
