Remuneration

Qualitative Disclosure

The Remuneration, People and Culture Committee has been tasked by the BankVic Board with overseeing remuneration policy for the company

The members of the Remuneration, People and Culture Committee for the 2021/22 year were:

*Steven Coulson (Chair), Lucinda Nolan, David Cowan (to 23 November 2021)
*David Cowan (Chair), Lucinda Nolan, Debra Robertson (from 23 November 2021)

The Committee met on three occasions during the year. The members received no additional payment on top of their directors' fees. The Chairs received an additional amount for acting as chair of the Committee.

The Remuneration Policy provides a framework that allows the Board to align remuneration and risk management and encourage behaviour that supports the risk management framework of BankVic as an institution regulated by APRA.

Through the work of the Committee, the Board accepts responsibility for satisfying itself that the remuneration arrangements of the following persons are not contrary to the financial soundness of the organisation:

- a. BankVic's Responsible Persons as defined by the APRA Prudential Standard CPS 520 Fit and Proper;
- b. BankVic personnel whose role is primarily risk and financial control; and,
- c. all other persons for whom a significant portion of total remuneration is based on performance and whose activities, individually or collectively, may affect the financial soundness of BankVic(including persons who may not be directly employed by BankVic such as contractors or persons employed by a related service company).

The Remuneration, People and Culture Committee applies the principles outlined in CPS 510 including considering the inherent conflicts of interest between performance objectives and those personnel undertaking risk and financial control functions. The Board has eliminated performance based remuneration for these staff. This is notwithstanding the achievement of any or all metrics nominated at the beginning or during the assessment period.

The key risks BankVic has taken into account when implementing remuneration measures were those identified in BankVic's Risk Management Framework, and included matters relating to liquidity, credit, market issues, interest rate volatility, organisations BankVic's membership may be associated with, key suppliers, general operations, information technology, staffing, strategic issues, fraud, occupational health and safety, financial planning, regulatory requirements, legal issues and pandemic. These risks did not materially change from those of the previous period.

As well as performance metrics including profitability, membership growth, product sales and cost control, the extent to which managers contribute to effective risk management at BankVic is an integral part of this performance assessment which in turn is used in setting remuneration. The results of internal and external audits are also taken into account.

Effective risk management includes reducing the likelihood and consequence of risk events and of minimising the adverse impact of such events. This is a component part of the defined performance assessment and reward scheme for staff and the remuneration arrangements for executives.

As no variable remuneration is paid, no arrangements to modify or clawback such remuneration have been necessary to take account of longer-term performance.

For the purposes of this disclosure, these categories include the Chief Executive Officer and other executive managers.

No persons received variable remuneration awards during the financial year, and none received a guaranteed bonus or sign-on award. No deferred remuneration is either outstanding or was paid during the year.

The table below provides details of the total value of remuneration awards for senior managers/material risk decision-makers for the period:
