THE COURSE

► CHAMPIONSHIP COURSE

The Spey Valley Championship course has something for everyone. Our 5th hole is one of the longest holes in Scotland and the 6th spans a lake which has been adopted as a nesting site by a bird colony.

When you reach the 12th at the start of the home stretch, the Spey Valley course opens up before offering breath-taking views of the surrounding Cairngorms, whilst the 16th presents a real challenge for even the most experienced golfer.

You'll need a long, accurate tee shot to carry the water hazard, while the flowering purple heather is standing by to punish a poor shot. However, the most spectacular of all has to be the 18th; with its two bunkers designed to mirror the undulating corries of the mountains beyond, this the perfect finishing hole before enjoying a well-earned drink in the clubhouse.
