HOUSTOUN HOUSE

AND SO YOUR Adventure begins

On behalf of everyone at Houstoun House we would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you both on your forthcoming wedding.

Our heritage dates back to the 1500's, making it somewhere very special to start your life together. 22 acres of beautiful woodland and elegant, sweeping grounds provide the perfect backdrop for the charismatic Houstoun House, a country hotel retreat with the serene ambiance to inspire complete relaxation – and just 40 minutes' drive from Scotland's iconic capital.

Once visited by Mary Queen of Scots, the 16th century tower house shows off its striking profile to great effect against the rolling lawns and dramatic skies.

Combined with open log fires and snow-fringed woodland or stunning gardens bathed in golden summer sunshine... whatever the season, the secluded setting, fabulous grounds and unique character of Houstoun House make it the perfect romantic wedding venue in West Lothian. Close to Edinburgh, Glasgow and Stirling, you'll enjoy the hotel's secluded setting and peaceful ambiance in a location that's also easy to access.

Every time we visited the venue the grounds have been nothing short of immaculate, this played a real part in our decision to choose Houstoun, regardless of the time of year, the outside spaces were always impeccable.
