Local Lads
£35.00

Tomatin Legacy, Tomatin 14, Cu Bocan Signature

A great taste of what's on our doorstep

Tomatin Distillery was established in 1897, situated just 12 miles South of The Drumossie Hotel. Here we bring you a selection of some of our favourite "Local Lads".

Time in Bourbon barrels and Virgin Oak casks brings a light sweetness to The Tomatin Legacy, a non-peaty scotch which boasts aromas of vanilla bean, white chocolate, and cinnamon.

On the palate gentle waves of fresh fruit peppered with ginger emerge ahead of a light, clean finish.

The 14-year-old single malt whisky is matured in a combination of Bourbon barrels and Port casks. It is soft, smooth, and sweet, benefiting from its time spent in Tawny Port casks which previously held port for around 50 years. Rich but balanced aromas of red berries, sweet honey and rich toffee develop into aspects of light fruits and nuts on the palate and an abiding finish of smooth fruit salad.

Cu Bocan Signature aged in Bourbon, Oloroso Sherry & North American Virgin Oak Casks. Smoke intertwines with rich citrus and exotic spices. Subtly smoky, surprisingly sweet, it opens up the world of lightly peated whisky.

Loch Legends
£32.00

Loch Lomond Original, Loch Lomond 12, Loch Lomond 14

A sip through one of Scotland's great Lochs

Embedded in the land next to the famous Loch Lomond lies this fantastic distillery, dating back to as early as 1772. It is well known to embrace tradition still to this day as being the only distillery in Scotland to have malt and grain production. The rich and vibrant whiskys produce a profound legacy and exciting future in the Scotch Whisky world.

The introduction to the Loch Lomond distillery is their 'Original' branded Scotch. It provides exceptional smoothness from being matured in fine oak casks. The whisky delivers bursts of flavours from nose to palate, with sweet honey, caramel and walnut, leading onto citrus notes with hints of smokiness and ginger.

The 12 year old provides a more sophisticated balance of peach, pear and vanilla sweetness to its already quite velvet finish. Green apple comes through alongside refreshing lemon with background notes of golden cereal to give that crisp feeling from on the nose to on the palate. It lingers perfectly in the mouth, making it a great sipper.

Loch Lomond 14 is the uniqueness when it comes to this distilleries whisky. It is aged in a variety of oak casks and matured beautifully to give it the 46% abv without chill filtration. This gives it the rich and bold flavours of sweet toffee, vanilla fudge, cinnamon, and toasted oak. The 14 gives a great character of fruits too, with grapefruit, spiced apple, and orange cardamon for a sweet finish on the palate.

A Stroll Down The River £23.50

Glenlivet 12, Cragganmore 12, Balvenie Doublewood

A selection of Speyside single malts

A Speyside whisky is one that has been produced in the area known as Speyside, a subdivision of the Highland region, defined simply as a whisky that's made in the Strathspey area; "strath" meaning "near".

At Drumossie we love to savour these Smooth Spey's, here are some of the teams favourites.-

Balvenie Doublewood, Firstly matured in refill American oak casks then finished in first fill European oak Oloroso sherry butts for an additional nine months, this rich and complex dram is an excellent example of what the Balvenie distillery offers

Cragganmore distillery is situated in the village of Ballindalloch. The distillery was founded in 1869. The site was chosen by founder, Smith both for its proximity to the waters of the Craggan burn and because it was close to the Strathspey Railway. Smith was an experienced distiller, having already been manager of the Macallan, Glenlivet, Glenfarclas and Wishaw distilleries. Cragganmore 12 is rich and spicy, with a very satisfying complexity and well-sherried backbone.

One of the most famous malts in the world.

Glenlivet 12 has a soft smooth balance of sweet summer fruits and the floral notes of spring flowers.

Matured in European and American Oak.

With apricot, pineapple, greengages, citrus blossom and toasted teacake. On the nose and Buttery and vanilla-rich, on the pallet this one is a treat.

Finest Firth £31.00

Glenmorangie 10, Glenmorangie Lasanta, Glenmorangie Quinta Ruban,

The ultimate taste of the Glenmorangie distillery.

A Highland whisky, Glenmorangie (or in its Gaelic meaning 'Valley of Tranquility') was founded from a famer and his wife in 1843 on his land ashore the Dornoch Firth and has grown to produce world-renowned Scotch whisky. The knowledge passed down many generations from pioneering techniques and innovation in distilling has led to award winning whisky over years of success.

Start with the classic and elegant Glenmorangie 10 - a staple of the 10 year old Scottish whiskies. The outdoor bright freshness of this whisky really brings through the light and expressive flavours. On the nose malt floors with pineapple cubes and peach balances nice with the other notes of chamomile and cut flowers. On the palate a touch of creaminess follows from sweet orange and slight tropical flashes. A soft white pepper spice and some very light acidic tones provides a clean finish.

Follow this then onto the Lasanta. The sun has now set with the endless horizon of red and orange hue from the 12 year old Lasanta compared to the bright 10 year old. It radiates with warm spices mixed with honeycomb and caramel toffee on the nose. Then with delicious sweet sultanas, walnuts and butterscotch on the palate to give great texture and balance.

Moving on to the Quinta Ruban...and in to the wild dark forest. This rich 14 year old port cask builds upon the combination of complex spices and smooth tastes.

The blend of dark chocolate on the nose with crisp mint provides a warm feeling as it goes on to bring out more soft and approachable tastes on the palate of apricots, ginger, strawberries and a hint of orange.

North Coast 500
£28.50

Old Pulteney 12, Glen Ord Singleton, Dalmore 12

A variety of single malts from the breathtaking North Coast 500 Route.

Dalmore 12 wont disappoint, this dark outstanding single malt matured in American white oak ex-bourbon casks and finessed in rare and aged oloroso sherry casks. With Seville oranges, dried fruits and hints of vanilla pod on the pallet, and the aroma of Citrus fruits, chocolate and aromatic spices we think this is class.

Old Pulteney hails from Wick, right at the top of the NC500 route. And from this (almost) most Northerly distillery comes Old Pulteney 12. Dry medium bodied and smooth, faintly salty with a slight spice.

Finishing your journey back in near Inverness, with the Glen Ord Singleton 12 year old single malt scotch whisky which is matured in a high proportion of American oak casks with a small portion of European oak casks to balance the liquid. The result is an easy to enjoy single malt with notes of luscious brown sugar, soft cooked apples and creamy toffee, best served with laughter and good company.

Nose: Bourbon-like vanilla and corn notes with a herbal hint of chamomile.

Palate: Sweet, fruity

flavours of melon, grapefruit and thick syrup, balanced by crunchy biscuits and fresh vanilla.

Nikka from the Barrel £11.50 ABV 51.4%

Nose: Medium-body with good balance. There are notes of cut flowers and fresh fruits, spice and a little oak.

Palate: Full-bodied and punchy. There is plenty of winter spice and toffee, a little caramel and vanilla and a good mouthful of fruit.

Hibiki Japanese Harmony £20.50 ABV 43%

Nose: Red berries, green apple and layers of rich honey.

Palate: Melted butter and caramelised dates. A hint of fragrant sandalwood develops into warming, oak spice.
